

EXPECT CHEST DRIVE TO REACH $26,800 GOAL

With $23,500.49 already collected toward its goal of $26,800, Gettysburg Community Chest Tuesday evening discussed plans of closing the campaign which, board members held, "will reach its goal."

Meeting at the Gettysburg Furniture Companies office on York St., the board of directors of the Chest went over the list of those who have donated, amounts that can be anticipated, names of persons missed in the first part of the drive, and the possibility that some persons who have already donated may increase their contributions and concluded: "We are enthusiastic that the goal can be met."

Within the next few weeks the Community Chest plans to contact a number who missed in the general canvass, and will probably send letters to a number of persons who directors feel may wish to donate additional sums.

Talk Of County-wide Chest

At the same time, they issued a general appeal to all who were missed in the campaign, or who wish to increase their previous pledges to notify William A. Lentz, the fund drive chairman, "to help bring the drive to a close as soon as possible."

While completing plans for this year's Community Chest drive "clean up" the directors also began consideration of "the possibility of a county-wide Community Chest campaign." A committee comprising Attorney Charles W. Wolf, John Hostetter and Judge W. C. Sheely was appointed as a "fact finding committee" to study the feasibility of a county-wide drive.

OPEN BIDS FOR ADDITION AT MSM SEMINARY

Five construction companies submitted bids for the two-story addition which will be built at Mt. St. Mary's Seminary, Emmitsburg, it was announced today by Rt. Rev. John L. Sheridan, president of Mt. St. Mary's College.

The bidders and their bids include:

- Lawrence Construction Company, $177,614.
- Steiner Construction Company, $187,200.
- Kirby and McGuire Construction Company, $193,700.
- Henry A. Knott, Inc., $200,000.
- Cogswell Construction Company, $209,000.

Although the contract was not let when the bids were opened Tuesday afternoon it is believed that the low bidder will receive the contract.

20 Rooms, 2 Suites

The addition will be two stories of cement block and native stone. It will have 20 rooms and two suites for members of the faculty. The annex is not planned to increase the seminary enrollment but to relieve the present congested condition.

The low bidder, Lawrence Construction Co., built Pangborn Hall at the Mount several years ago. Edward A. Tormey, the architect, representatives of the bidding firms, and members of the building and finance committee of the school were present when the bids were opened.

Work will start as soon as the contract is let.

It was also announced today that Mt. St. Mary's College has received an unrestricted grant of $2,000 from the Esso Foundation.

Red Cross Gathers Gifts For Christmas

The annual quota of special Christmas gifts for members of the armed forces and hospitalized servicemen and veterans has been received and the Adams County chapter's Volunteer Services chairman, Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, is inviting help to meet the request.

The county chapter has been asked for 1,200 cookies, 50 centerpieces, 75 wrapped gifts, which are for servicemen who will be on duty on Christmas Day; two bushels of apples and five boxes of candy bars.

The gifts are to be delivered between December 17 and 19 to the army depot at New Cumberland hospital at the Army War College at Carlisle and the veterans' hospital at Lebanon.

Each year the Red Cross receives donations from individuals and organizations to meet this special request for holiday gifts.

Red Cross Will Help Needy Folk

After delivering a dozen food baskets to needy families in the county at Thanksgiving time, the Adams County chapter of the Red Cross is offering to distribute Christmas baskets, candy and toys to needy at Christmastime, a service the Red Cross has been called upon to perform for several decades.

Each year a number of individuals and organizations have sent food baskets, quantities of toys, candy, clothing and other donations and asked the Red Cross to see that it gets to needy families before Christmas.

ROTH OUTLINES TRAVEL PLANS AT CLUB MEET

The plans and hopes of the Gettysburg Travel Council were outlined to the Gettysburg Exchange Club by G. Henry Roth, public relation consultant, at a dinner-meeting Tuesday night at Banker's Restaurant.

Roth said, "Council work is obviously based on the planning to bring additional tourists here. Recently we sent stories and pictures marking the 25th anniversary of the placing of the Alabama monument to some 25 newspapers, six television stations and 99 radio stations in Alabama. We also called attention of the Daughters of the Confederacy to the fact that we marked the anniversary. This story was seen by a lot of people and we can only hope that it will prompt a few of them to come to Gettysburg to see their monument."

"Similarly next fall will mark the 50th anniversary of the placing of the Pennsylvania monument. We plan to send stories throughout the Commonwealth with the hope that more Pennsylvanians will become interested enough to come to Gettysburg to see their monument."

Advertise Gettysburg

"Throughout the year Travel Council seeks to get the word Gettysburg before as many thousands of people as possible, hoping some of them will be tempted to come here. Thus the more support the council has, the more messages it can send out, the more projects it can embark on and the more likelihood that an increasing number of people will come to Gettysburg."

Alabama Officials' Defiance Called 'Reprehensible' By Ike

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today called it reprehensible for public officials to refuse to produce evidence about Negro voter registration.

At a news conference the President dealt specifically with such defiance in Alabama and also with defiance of the law generally.

At his first meeting with reporters since Nov. 5, Eisenhower also said he knows of no reason to question reports that the Soviet Union has developed an intercontinental ballistic missile capable of delivering a warhead almost 8,700 miles.

No Confirmation

As for published reports the Soviet Union has test flown an atomic-powered plane, Eisenhower said this government has received no intelligence—no reliable information—that they have flown such a plane.

Eisenhower was asked for comment on the refusal by Alabama public officials to supply Negro

Harmony Unit Makes Debut

11 ABOVE ZERO THIS MORNING FOR NEW LOW

The coldest weather of the season arrived here overnight and sent the mercury down to a new low of 11 degrees at the Gettysburg Times weather station while the Arendtsville Laboratory station reported a low of 8 above zero.

The frigid weather has held this section in its grip for five days. Not since last Friday afternoon has the mercury been above the 32-degree mark in Gettysburg.

The previous low was 15 degrees on the last two Sunday mornings.

Another near-zero low is forecast for tonight.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pennsylvania was in the grip of the season's most severe cold wave today with no immediate relief in prospect.

Erie County also was hit by a severe snowstorm.

Most western counties reported overnight temperature readings of below zero.

St. Marys in Elk County had the dubious distinction of reporting the lowest temperature—8 below zero. It was 7 below at Kane.

School Buses Stalled

In Erie County many school children stayed home today because buses couldn't get through drifting snow on secondary roads. Schools operated in the city of Erie but school systems were closed at Fairview, Fort LeBoeuf, McKean, Albion and Springfield.

All main highways in Erie County were open but were in dangerous traveling condition. A fresh fall of snow kept nearly 200 highways department workers on a round the clock schedule.

From 7 a.m. yesterday until 7 a.m. today 10 inches of snow had fallen, with 21 inches now on the ground.

Erie County highways department officials borrowed extra equipment from Venango and Warren counties to help keep roads open.

The Red Cross distributed literature to stores in which residents were urged to stockpile food in case conditions became more severe.

Overflow Audience Hears Mt. St. Mary's Xmas Concert

An overflow house heard Mt. St. Mary's Glee Club present a joint Christmas concert with the Women's Chorus of the University of Maryland Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in Flynn Hall on the college campus, Emmitsburg. The program marked the opening of the chorus' tenth year under the direction of its founder, the Rev. Fr. David W. Shaum, professor of music at the Mount.

The 50-voice women's chorus under the direction of Paul Traver opened the hour and a half program with a "Ceremony of Carols," by Britten, and moved with verve and spirit through "Wolcum Yole," "There Is No Rose," "Balulalow," "As Dew in April," and "This Little Babe," to the hearty applause of the audience.

Strikingly garbed in severe black gowns, the visiting choristers also sang "Softly the Stars Were Shining," by Torovsky; "God So Loved the World," by Stainer; "O Come, Little Children," a German carol; "I Saw Three Ships," a lilting English carol, and the sprightly "Czechoslovakian Dance Song." A feature of the Maryland performance was the American carol "Never Was a Child So Lovely," sung by the a cappella choir.

Harmony Unit Sings

The Mountaineer chorus of 40 voices clothed in black tuxedos with red boutonnières closed out the opening portion of the program with "Donna Nobis Pacem," arranged by Wilson; "A Salute to Our Sister Colleges," including Army, Dartmouth and Mt. St. Mary's College numbers; the humorous and rollicking "De Animo A Coming," arranged by Bartholomew; "Autumn Leaves," arranged by Dash and featuring Sgroi, Sgroi, baritone; "Go Way From My Window," Niles. The show stopper was the thunderous and beautifully executed "There Is Nothing Like A Dame," from the Rodgers-Hammerstein musical "South Pacific."

Father Shaum also unveiled a new harmony unit of 10 voices which offered "I Love Paris," and "Summertime." James R. Kleindienst, John M. O'Connell, Leo J. Quinn, Lawrence P. Tremonti, Joseph M. Weisenbaugh Jr., Richard M. Clark, James J. Willey, Edward V. Girzone, Robert S. Polimac and Joseph N. Sgroi comprised the group which displayed a dramatic flair as well as excellent song execution.

President Speaks

Following a brief intermission the Mountaineer Glee Club offered "The Christmas Song," by Wells; "Silver Bells," by Livingstone which drew an eager response from the capacity audience to Father Shaum's request for audience participation: "Pat-a-Pan," a Burgundian air with Richard Clark at the drums; "The Boar's Head Carol," arranged by Greene; "A Boy Is Born," by Shaw; "On This Good Christmas Morn," by Cain, and Gruber's "Silent Night," in which the audience again joined voices with the choraleers.

The program closed with Adam's "Cantique de Noel" offered by the combined choruses and featuring Jane Brough, soprano, and James Kleindienst.

CIVIL SERVICE BOARD TO HOLD POLICE EXAM

The Civil Service Board of Gettysburg borough announced today it will hold a competitive examination Wednesday, December 17, to establish a list of eligibles for appointment as policemen in the borough.

The board has been advised that the borough council will be making an appointment in January to fill the vacancy in the regular force caused by the recent death of Officer Luther Stevens.

G. W. Lefever, chairman of the board, said the examination will be held at 7:30 p.m. in Room 126 at the Gettysburg High School building.

List Qualifications

Application and medical examination forms, which are available at the office of the burgess in the engine house on E. Middle St., must be completed and filed with the burgess by December 16, Mr. Lefever said.

Qualifications of applicants require that they be between 21 and 40 years of age, a resident of the borough for at least one year and be persons of "good character." Each applicant must be at least 5 feet eight inches in height and must weigh at least 155 pounds. Each must be able to pass the required physical examination.

After the examination, the board will certify a list of eligible persons to the town council. John Fox, a former councilman, is secretary of the Civil Service board and Dr. Harrison F. Harbach is the third member.

SUPERVISORS TOLD POWERS, OBLIGATIONS

Adams County's township supervisors were told Tuesday afternoon that they can prosecute municipalities or individuals who may violate their anti-dump ordinances.

At the same time they were told that since they have the power to prevent dumping they also have the "moral responsibility" to provide for a place to dump.

At a question and answer period at the county supervisors' association convention at the court house, H. A. "Cappy" Thompson, secretary of the state supervisors' association, was asked whether "a municipality can put in a land-fill dump when a township has an ordinance forbidding it."

Offer Court Help

Thompson told his questioner that "the answer is no. Under the township code as amended five years ago you have every control over the hauling, dumping, collection, distribution or handling of garbage and debris within your township. And if your ordinance has a penalty provision you have every right to impose it."

"If you get into trouble let us know so we can help take it into court."

At the same time, remember that you have a moral obligation to the people of your township if you forbid dumping. You should provide them with a place to put (Continued On Page 2)

TRAILER BURNS

A fire at 9 o'clock this morning destroyed the interior of a 20-foot house trailer used as an office at the Bethlehem Limestone Quarries, Hanover R. 5. Eugene A. Banker Pays Thousands Of Dollars In Bogus Checks

LOS ANGELES (AP) — What made banker John Petersen become the Santa Claus of Sun Valley?

Investigators probing the tangled records of the Sun Valley National Bank haven't found the answer.

Fourteen persons got nearly a million dollars from the suburban bank with worthless checks because of Petersen's "good guy" approach to banking, a prosecutor said Tuesday.

"Petersen hasn't told us his whole story yet," U.S. Atty. Laughlin E. Waters said. "The incredible thing is why he did it."

JURY WHEEL FOR 1959 IS FILLED HERE

Judge W. C. Sheely, Sheriff Dawson Miller and Jury Commissioners Mervin I. Rice and Laura Freed Monday selected 350 names from among whom the four lists of jurors will be selected next year.

Sitting down to "fill the jury wheel" Monday in the law library at the court house, the officials first removed the names remaining in the wheel after the 1958 juries had been selected. Those names became the nucleus for the 350 to be selected for next year. Then, they added, one at a time, sufficient names to bring the total again to 350.

The names were typed and each rolled individually on its own slip of paper and placed in the wooden jury wheel. A sheet of paper was placed over the door to the wheel. Then wax was placed over that. Then each official taking part put on his seal.

100 Housewives

The wheel was put away in a double-locked fashion so that at least one jury commissioner and the sheriff must be together when the jury wheel is opened — for each carries his own key.

Selected were 100 housewives, according to the list, and 68 farmers or fruitgrowers. The remainder cover about every occupation in which counties engage.

The number selected from each section depends upon population and ranges from four from Bendersville, Abbottstown and other smaller communities to 21 each from Gettysburg First Ward and Franklin Twp. Fifty-four of the persons are from Gettysburg, 21 from the First Ward, 16 from the Second Ward and 17 from Third Ward.

The list of names in the jury wheel follows:

Abbottstown, Mrs. Naomi Meckley, J. Faber Wildasin, Mrs. Carolyn Landis and Stephen Wolf. (Continued On Page 12)

INCREASE IN GASOLINE TAX IS PREDICTED

An increase in the gasoline tax, "possibly by two cents," was forecast by Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman in a talk Tuesday afternoon at the 41st annual convention of the Adams County Township Supervisors, Auditors, Assessors and Tax Collectors Association.

Furman said that he "hopes that there will be no need for new taxation, but it looks very much as if it will be necessary to add at least one cent and possibly two to the gasoline tax if the state is to carry out its obligations for improved roads and the townships are to get the help they need to carry out their program."

Asks Mutual Respect

Furman asked for "mutual respect in our problems. If the townships respect the problems of the state and if the state respects the problems of the township and both work together toward the common goal of a better highway system, we can solve the problems that plague us both."

Mearl Heikes, East Berlin R. 1, was re-elected president of the organization. He has held office in the group for the last 12 years. J. Robert Hall, Orrtanna R. 1, was re-elected vice president. Others re-elected were Secretary Ervin J. Baker, East Berlin R. D., and Treasurer Clyde A. McCauslin, Aspers.

Heikes, Baker and Glenn Jacobs, East Berlin R. 1, were named delegates to the state supervisors convention. Selected as alternates are Vice President Hall and Norval Beaver, New Oxford R. 1.

The supervisors passed 11 resolutions, one of them asking that the state highway department be required to designate the shortest available public highway as an official detour when state high (Continued On Page 12)

UPPER ADAMS, LOCAL BOARDS REORGANIZED

Rowe M. Martin, Biglerville, was re-elected president of the Upper Adams Joint School Board and of the Biglerville School Board when the joint board and the member local boards met Monday night in the Biglerville Elementary School. Kenneth S. Alvine was re-elected vice president of the Biglerville local board. J. F. Kanagy, Butler Twp., was re-elected vice president of the jointure and president of his local board. Henry Lower was re-elected vice president of the Butler board.

Other boards chose presidents and vice presidents, respectively, as follows:

Arendtsville, Dr. Raymond M. Hale, Jr. and the Rev. Nevin R. Frantz.

Bendersville, Harold S. Oliver and Luther M. Horick.

Menallen Twp., John R. Pitzer and Richard Galusha.

Tyrone Twp., John K. Mansberger and Corman Day.

The organization of the merged board which will succeed the joint and member local boards as a result of the decision of voters in the November 4 election will take place July 6. At that time the new board, which will have the present 30 members of the six local boards as members, will choose its name. Eventually membership of the merged board will be decreased to seven.

their debris. If you don't you will find that you have done away with one dump and made every road in your township into a dump."

Landfill is Best

Thomson also held that "it is best to work together on the matter. The best way of disposing of debris that I know of is through a landfill operation. I would advise that you get together with adjoining boroughs or townships and work out the disposal problems together."

In response to another question from a supervisor concerning justices of the peace who refuse to comply with the new law requiring the justices to make monthly settlements with townships of fines collected during the month, Thomson said: "They know the law. Give them so many hours to settle up and if they don't swear out a warrant for their arrest. The penalties are extremely severe."

Asked what to do about a state employee who refuses to pay taxes, Thomson asked the questioner to send him the name and address, adding: "I'll take it to his department head. We've had that problem before and the state has notified the employee to pay up or else."

The news conference also dealt with these other matters:

BERLIN—At the outset, Eisenhower volunteered a review of the Berlin picture going back to the days of World War II.

He concluded the summary by saying that in the current crisis there the United States will continue to stand for unification of all Germany — and against any move by Russia to strike at the freedom and security of West Berlin.

This country—together with its Western Allies, feels a responsibility and a duty to maintain the freedom of West Berlin, Eisenhower said. He also emphasized that the United States, Britain and France have a right to remain in Berlin.

As far as the United States is concerned, there is no attempt to be arbitrary in dealing with the Russians in the sense of trying to irritate or anger anybody else.

TRUMAN—With a show of irritation, Eisenhower said he has a little too much sense to get mad at anyone. This was in comment on former President Truman's remark Monday that Eisenhower has been mad at him since the 1952 campaign. Truman further said: "I don't give a damn."

A reporter told the President today that Truman said there was nothing personal between him and Eisenhower, but that he (Truman) "raised hell" with Eisenhower six years ago "when he didn't knock Jenner off the platform after he called Gen. Marshall a traitor."

The references were to Sen. William Jenner (R-Ind) and Gen. George C. Marshall, Army chief of staff during World War II and later secretary of defense and secretary of state.

Bristling, Eisenhower said he always—before, during and after the war—had made known his admiration and respect for Marshall. He said Marshall is one of the men he calls great.

DEMOCRATS—Commenting on the legislative program recommended by the Democratic Advisory Council, Eisenhower wondered how the opposition party expects to raise enough tax money to pay for such a program.

ECONOMIC AID—Eisenhower made no specific reply when asked whether he will call for more economic assistance to underdeveloped nations. But he remarked that if the free world is to get unity, we cannot abandon or ignore nations which need help.

POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY—Replying to a question, Eisenhower said he knows of no justification for anyone's saying he is moving more in a conservative direction since the November elections.

DALE STARRY HEADS JOINT SCHOOL BOARD

Dale W. Starry, Union Twp., was elected president of the Littlestown Joint School Board when the board met Tuesday night in Littlestown. He succeeds Wilbur E. Mackley, of the Littlestown board.

Fred Hartlaub, Mt. Pleasant Twp., was elected vice president, succeeding Starry in that post. Election of secretary and treasurer is not held in connection with the reorganization in December. Henry E. Waltman and Arthur Buehler hold those posts, respectively.

Mackley expressed his appreciation to the board for its "fine cooperation" during his term of office. The meeting night, the second Tuesday each month, was retained with the time 7:30 p.m. in the winter months and 8 p.m. during the summer.

Fire Safety Checked

A report by the local fire chief, Glenn E. Ohler, concerning the inspection tour which he made of the high school and of the E. King St. school buildings on Monday of this week, was heard. Several potential fire hazards were brought to the attention of the board, with recommendations for correcting them.

The placement of additional fire extinguishers in the buildings was recommended, together with the replacement of the soda and acid extinguishers that no longer pass pressurized tests, and also the replacement of the 50-foot section of no longer serviceable one-half inch hose to the rear of the auditorium in the Maple Ave. building.

The board promptly authorized the purchase of the recommended equipment.

Elect Teacher

Donald Kump, a graduate of the local high school, now a student at Shippensburg State Teachers College and slated to be graduated in the spring, was elected as a sixth grade teacher for the 1959-1960 school term.

The board authorized its property and supplies committee to purchase a floor cleaning machine at the lowest bid available, providing the equipment presented in the bid meets the needs of the school.

Lloyd E. Crouse gave a report on the progress of the building committee for the proposed new senior high school.

Members of the board received an invitation from the Littlestown Ministerial Association to attend the preaching mission services in St. Paul's Lutheran church with the teachers group on Wednesday, January 7.

Nurse Reports

The monthly report of the school nurse, Mrs. Brenda B. Walker, revealed 14 home calls for the month and 189 first aid treatments in school, with five pupils requiring further treatment at the doctor's office and one requiring x-rays at the hospital.

The physical examinations in first grade were reported completed by Dr. Leonard L. Potter and the second in the series of diphtheria-tetanus toxoid given November 14 by Dr. Potter.

Dental examinations were reported begun by Dr. Richard M. Phearer. Thirty-two boys in the junior senior high school were examined by Dr. Potter for participation in basketball. The general health of the pupils was listed as good.

Principal Reports

Supervising Principal Paul E. King reported that the Enoch Flower Chapter of the Future Teachers of America had participated in a county gathering in Biglerville; that a representative from the Social Security office in Chambersburg had spoken to senior class members November 18; that the annual school chest fund collection was made through out the schools November 24 to 26 with $115 donated and that a bowling league had been organized among the girl students, with Mrs. Jane Hankle of the faculty directing.

Hugh Roberts and Paul Plitt who tried out for district band, were accepted; both had very high ratings in their competitive classes, King said.

The personnel dinner will be held on Thursday of this week.

The treasurer's report revealed receipts for the month totaling $26,039.33 and expenditures as follows: general control, $342.50; instruction, $19,685.42; auxiliary agencies, $2,902.45; coordinate activities, $376.50; operation of plants, $1,673.38; maintenance of plants, $626.67, a total of $25,591.90.

Names Committees

Committee appointments for the coming year were made by President Starry as follows: Building and planning, Lloyd E. Crouse, chairman, Glenn Bowers, George W. Strevig, Fred Hartlaub and Bernard W. Dutterer; finance, Arthur E. Buehler, chairman, Crouse, Strevig, Joseph Claubaugh and Bernard W. Dutterer; property and supplies, Bernard Hess, Mackley, Bernard Murren, Glenn Bowers and Lewis C. V. Lippy; public relations, Henry E. Waltman, chairman, Wade H. Brown, Charles M. A. Shildt, George S. Worley and Fred Hartlaub.

Teacher committee, Dale W. Starry, Richard A. Maitland, Clement B. Hawn, Ray T. Harner and John W. Schwartz; transportation, Joseph Orndorff, Clayton Harget, Daniel Bair, Karl P. Bankert and C. Aaron Rohrbach; athletic council representatives, Henry E. Waltman and Karl P. Bankert.

Present at the meeting Tuesday were Mackley, Starry, Crouse, Ray T. Harner, Richard A. Maitland, Shildt, Lippy, Daniel Bair, Bowers, Worley, Hess, John W. Schwartz, Clayton L. Harget, Hartlaub, Dutterer, Brown, Claubaugh, Buehler, C. Aaron Rohrbach, Strevig, Clement B. Hawn, Secretary Waltman and Supervising Principal King.

The board will convene again Tuesday, January 13, at 7:30 p.m.

CHICAGO (AP) — Ray Bluth of St. Louis and Elvira Toepfer of Detroit took over the top spots in the World Invitational Bowling Tournament Tuesday night the hard way, beating the defending champions.

They were the targets of the 15 other finalists as firing resumed today in the second day of the finals in the Chicago Coliseum. Bluth, a sturdy, 30-year-old bowling proprietor, moved into the men's division leap by turning back Don Carter of St. Louis, winner of last year's title, in four games. He finished his chores for the day with a record of 13 wins and 3 losses.

YULE PROGRAM PRESENTED AT CLASS MEET

A yuletide program was presented at the December meeting of the Loyalty Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church Monday evening in the church. The session opened with carol singing, accompanied by Mrs. J. Ray Reindollar. Devotions consisted of the Scripture, read by Mrs. Howard Trostle, and prayer by Mrs. Carl H. Baumgardner. Reports were heard from Mrs. C. Aaron Rohrbach, acting secretary, and Mrs. George Rhodes, treasurer.

The program was as follows: Vocal solo, Craig Zumbum, accompanied by his grandmother, Mrs. Reindollar; reading, Mrs. Baumgardner; recitation, Sandra Rhodes; history of the Christmas rose, Mrs. Baumgardner; reading selections, Fred Blocher; guitar, "The First American Christmas," Mrs. A. G. Ealy; reading, "The Legend of The Poinsettia," Mrs. Fred F. Blocher; piano solo, Linda Blocher; vocal solo, Craig Zumbum; reading, "The Skippy Christmas Tree," Mrs. Rhodes, and reading, "The Mistletoe," Mrs. Howard Trostle.

To Aid Committee

During the business period, Mrs. Robert B. DeGroft was appointed to assist the cheer committee with the Christmas projects. The following committee was named in charge of transportation when the class visits the Manufacturers Light and Heat Co., Gettysburg, April 7: Mrs. Frank E. Basehoar, Mrs. L. Robert Snyder and Mrs. Aaron Rohrbach. The guess package, given by Mrs. Emory Gitt, was won by Mrs. Roger J. Keefer.

Gifts were exchanged during the social hour. Refreshments were served by these members of group five: Mrs. Trostle, chairman, Mrs. Baumgardner, Mrs. Ealy, Mrs. Reindollar, Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. Blocher and Mrs. Clarence O. Bankert.

It was decided to hold the next regular meeting of the class on Monday, January 5, following the community preaching mission service, 8:30 p.m. at the church.

The hostesses will be group one, composed of Mrs. Charles E. Ritter, chairman, Mrs. L. Robert Snyder, Mrs. Robert Gitt, Mrs. William R. Keefer, Mrs. James V. Yingling, Mrs. Nevaeh A. Crouse, Mrs. Harold Messinger and Mrs. David Shildt.

Brotherhood Meets

About 75 persons attended the annual Christmas party held for members of the Men's Brotherhood of St. John's Lutheran Church and their families Monday evening in the church social hall. A ham and covered dish supper was served, in charge of John Gentzler, David Erb and Oliver Erb. Wilbur E. Mackley was toastmaster. The invocation was by the pastor, the Rev. William C. Karns.

The program, arranged by Mr. Mackley and Fred W. King, included carol singing, led by Ronald W. Strevig, and accompanied by Mrs. Ronald Strevig. Two films, "Christmas Customs" and "Let's Keep Christmas," were shown. Santa Claus arrived to distribute gifts.

These officers were elected during the business session conducted by the retiring president, James Dutterer, President, Ronald Strevig; vice president, Harry O. Harner; secretary, Dewey Baumgardner; assistant secretary, John Gentzler; treasurer, Kenneth Bortner.

The next regular meeting of the Brotherhood will be Monday, January 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the church. The program will be in charge of the newly elected officers. Refreshments will be served by the retiring officers, James Dutterer, Kenneth W. Miller, Noah V. Strevig and Kenneth Bortner.

Brownies To Sing

Brownie Troop 56 met Monday after school. The business was conducted by troop members Betty Bair, Mary Jane Harmon, Linda Moon, Sandra Rhodes and Beverly Hartlaub. There was a practice session for the Brownies and Girl Scouts Christmas caroling on Friday at 6:30 p.m. in front of the Littlestown State Bank building. Mrs. James H. Spalding, leader and Mrs. George Rhodes, troop committee members, assisted the girls with work on their Christmas projects.

Plans were made to visit the children's division of the Hanover Public Library Saturday. It was decided to cancel the Christmas party for parents of troop members, planned for Monday evening, December 22, because of other holiday activities. The troop Christmas party will be held in connection with the regular meeting December 22 at 3:30 p.m.

Mrs. Charles W. Simons, who has been troop leader since its organization, is moving from the community to Bedford, Va., on Saturday. Her duties will be assumed by Mrs. Spalding.

Two Bullets On All-Foe Team Of Lehigh

BETHLEHEM — Harvard, a 20-0 victor over Lehigh, placed three men on the Engineers' 1958 all-opponent football team.

Guard Harold Anderson, tackle Bob Shaumessy and sophomore quarterback Charlie Ravenel were the three Harvard players named along with two each from Rutgers, Buffalo and Gettysburg. Lafayette and V.M.I. each had one player selected as the best faced by the Engineers as Lehigh won three, lost three and tied three.

Billy Austin, Rutgers' all-American halfback was named to the backfield with Ravenel, as was halfback Willie Evans, Buffalo, and Lafayette's outstanding fullback, Don Nikles.

Rutgers' Bob Simms was the only unanimous selection to the team, as he was named at end with Buffalo's Nick Bottini. V.M.I.'s Jim McFalls was picked at tackle with Shaumessy. Gettysburg had guard Carl Schoenborn and center Dave Yohn chosen to the squad.

The invocation was given by Harry W. Badders, company secretary.

Mrs. Ottilie Weaver, auxiliary president, made the presentation of a bronze memorial plaque and light to the company, to be placed on the outside of the engine house. The gift was accepted on behalf of the company by Secretary Badders.

The following program was presented in the upstairs room of the engine house: Group caroling, with Mrs. Anna Rebert at the piano; cornet duet, Robert Hahn and Bernard Weaver; guitar selection Fred Blocher; humorous reading, Mrs. Viola Badders.

Mrs. Rebert Elected

Mrs. Anna Rebert was elected president. Other new officers are: Mrs. Viola Badders, vice president; Mrs. Kathryn Hahn, secretary; Mrs. Betty Kauffman, treasurer. Tellers for the election were Mrs. Kathryn Flickinger and Mrs. Ruth Sneeringer. The newly elected officers will assume their duties in January.

Mrs. Ottilie Weaver, retiring president, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Hahn, secretary, and Mrs. Dorothy Burgoon, retiring treasurer, reported. A report on the success of the public party at Thanksgiving time was heard.

It was decided that the exchange of gifts among the 1959 secret sisters would not include birthday of anniversary gifts, only greeting cards on these occasions, and gifts at Christmas time. Gifts were exchanged and secret sisters for 1958 revealed.

The guess package, given by Mrs. Frances Miller, was received by Mrs. Ruth Crouse. The Monday meeting was arranged by Mrs. Anna Rebert, Mrs. Elva Weaver, Mrs. Ottilie Weaver and Mrs. Mildred Wallick.

Rotary Meets

Slides on the preparation and distribution of the Rotary Magazine and "how it stimulates creative projects throughout the world" were shown at the weekly dinner meeting of the Littlestown Rotary Club Tuesday evening at Schottie's Hotel. The slides were shown by Charles E. Rabenstein, with narration by Clarence J. Krichen Jr., both of the magazine committee, in charge of the evening's program.

The invocation was by Arthur E. Bair Sr. L. Robert Snyder led group singing, accompanied on the piano by George P. Smith. Visiting Rotarians in attendance were the Rev. Dr. Nevin E. Smith and Scott Smith, Hanover.

A Christmas party will be held at a ladies' night meeting next Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in St. John's Lutheran Church social hall. The program committee, composed of ident, conducted the meeting. Mrs. Hahn, secretary, and Mrs. Dorothy Burgoon, retiring treasurer, reported. A report on the success of the public party at Thanksgiving time was heard.

Girl Scout News

Brownie Troop 33 met Monday afternoon after school in Christ Lutheran Church with 24 members present. The girls worked on Christmas presents and practiced Christmas carols for the Carol Sing December 17. Leaders present were Mrs. John Welshonce and Mrs. Robert Hand.

Girl Scout Troop 36 met Monday afternoon at St. James Lutheran Church with 13 members and three leaders, Mrs. Clark Smith, Mrs. Kenneth Hull and Senior Aid Beth Hewetson, present. Christmas carols were sung and a practice was held for a Christmas program at the church December 15.

Intermediate Troop 24 met Tuesday in the Casstown fire hall where the members made wreaths of greens, foil and tiny tree ornaments. Leaders in charge were Mrs. Ross White, Mrs. Dorsey Shultz and Mrs. Clark Spence.

A Christmas program was presented by Brownie Troop 62 Tuesday evening at a party held for the Brownies by their sponsoring institution, the Women of the Moose, at the Moose lodge on York St.

A chorus of Brownie members comprising Ann Reinberger, Cheryl Swope, Helen Longenecker, Janet Fair, Catherine Myers, Thomas C. McSherry, chairman, Rev. David S. Kammerer, Edward H. Leister, Clarence R. Reck, Luther D. Snyder and Dr. Howard A. Stonestifer, will arrange the entertainment.

Karen Williams, Judy Allison and Carolyn Walborn sang "Silent Night," "Joy To The World," "O Little Town of Bethlehem" and "Away in a Manger."

Mrs. Louis Brady, assistant leader of the troop, was narrator for "The Christmas Story" in which Connie Brady portrayed "A Little Girl"; Kathy Fohl, "Joseph"; Patricia Bowersox, "Mary"; Corrine Bender, Susan Redding and Tammy Foth, "Three Wise Men"; Judy Robinson and Robin Burns, "Shepherds"; Nancy Breighner, Cindy Currens and Trudy Timmons, "Angels," and Gladys Blanchard "Star." Carolyn Walborn sang "Silent Night" and "Away in a Manger" in Spanish. Mrs. Brady introduced the leaders and committee members.

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Hilda Newman and Mrs. Glenn Keller, troop counselor, presented an American flag to the troop. Each of the Brownies was presented with an orange and candy cane.

Immediately after the program by the Brownies the Women of the Moose held their regular meeting, including a Christmas party, with 50 members present. Social service chapter night was held under the direction of the chairman, Eva Moyer. Enrollment of a new member was conducted. The door prize was awarded Hilda Newman, the chapter night award to Fern Myers and cakes to Mary Fridinger and Sarah Thomas.

It was decided to hold the next meeting on December 16 instead of the regular time because of Christmas week. A public card party will be held Wednesday evening December 17 at 8 o'clock. A rummage sale will be held at the Moose home Saturday morning starting at 8 o'clock. One dollar gifts were exchanged among the members.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times
TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Gettysburg Soldier, Captured By Confederates, Gave Life For Cellmate At Southern Prison: An interesting letter about Wesley Culp, of Gettysburg, who fought in the Confederate army, and his cousin, Keller Culp, also of Gettysburg, who fought on the Union side, was written to Reuben H. Culp, York St., by his brother M. Luther Culp, of Escondido, California.

"There is no question about the fact that Wesley Culp fought with the Confederate Army in the Battle of Gettysburg," Luther Culp, a former resident here, writes. "I was one of the party that went out on the battlefield after the fighting in an effort to find Wesley Culp's body, but it was not to be found. I heard later that he was unhurt and returned south with the army of northern Virginia."

"Wesley Culp's mother was dead at the time of the battle but his sister Julia Culp was ill at the home of her aunt, Mrs. William Stallsmith, York street, and during the battle of Gettysburg he visited her."

"Wesley Culp's cousin, Keller Culp, was a son of George Culp, who lived in Cumberland township. Keller was a soldier in the Union army and was taken prisoner at Andersonville prison."

"One day his name was to be called for release. Next to him was a young man, who had a family awaiting him outside, who was ill. Keller Culp, who was single, told his cellmate that on the morrow, when Culp's number would be called, the former should answer and secure his release."

"Culp's cellmate left within a day or two and Culp remained in prison and died there. His body was buried at the prison."

Xmas Lights On Saturday: Strings of laurel today were being added to Gettysburg's Christmas decorations and many favorable comments on the appearance of center square were being received by the Chamber of Commerce which is in charge of decorating the town for the holiday season this year.

The strings of red, green and blue lights, together with four ornamental stars, will be lighted for the first time on Saturday evening.

Victor Palmer of Gettysburg is in charge of decorating the center square this year. He also placed about 40 Christmas trees for local businessmen in front of their stores.

Dr. C. G. Crist President of School Board: Dr. C. G. Crist was elected president of the Gettysburg school board at its re-organization meeting Monday night at the high school. He succeeds Harry L. Snyder, who retired after serving a six-year term.

A. E. Hutchison was elected vice-president. Roy W. Wenzel also retires after serving a six-year term.

Today's Talk

THE JOY OF A PAL
A pal is in the diamond, pearl or ruby class — rare and precious. But different in this way — fine and rare as a real pal is, intrinsic value does not enter into his possession.

A pal loves, forgives, forgets, sympathizes, understands — above all, understands. You don't have to explain or excuse to the one who is your pal.

A pal always comes to you when you need him most and he isn't afraid a bit if the whole crowded world deserts you. He is there to stay because, don't you see, he is your pal. You want him and he wants you.

A pal doesn't keep things back. A pal is honest, above — board, open and expressive. A pal can make mistakes and they are just mistakes; but if he isn't your pal, then they are blunders. You may resent them and be unhappy — but somehow, with a pal, you love right through everything. You are the stronger bound for the very weaknesses that sometimes hide strong feeling unexpressed.

A pal is always around — in spirit and in feeling. He does not understand the fair-weather quality. My pal is always around when I am most in need, and I am inspired and spurred ahead. And I shall win all things worth while because I have a pal.

If you have a pal, you have the world — and no one can take it from you.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Separate Things Suggest Enjoyment"

Just Folks

NEWLYWEDS' ADVANCE NOTICE
If you be no kin to me
Nearer, say, than cousin,
Let no busy Christmas bee
In your head start buzzin'.
Vain it were to look my year
Christmas gifts pursuing.
This year on the happy day
There'll be nothing doing.

If no ties of family
Bind us close together,
If we merely chance to be
Linked by friendship's tether,
Make your mind up you'll be missed
When the gifts are dropping.
You're not on our Christmas list
When we start out shopping.

Aunts and uncles by the score,
Nephews, nieces, cousins
We're obliged to purchase for.
They run into dozens.
And we've got to practice thrift
Even though we dread it.
No outsider gets a gift
This year. She has said it.

U.S. Approves Project To Reconstruct Local Sewage Treatment Plant: Unqualified approval of a project for the reconstruction of Gettysburg's sewage treatment plant was given by A. E. Demaray, assistant director of the national park service department of the interior in a letter received today by James R. McConaghie, superintendent of the Gettysburg national military park.

In submitting six civil works projects to the national park service for approval Mr. McConaghie asked that an appropriation of $15,000 be given toward the payment of materials for the sewage plant project.

At the December meeting of borough council Monday, engineer estimated the cost of improvements to the sewage plant would be approximately $70,000.

The following day Mr. McConaghie submitted to the state administrator for the civil works administration, Harrisburg, a project covering the cost of labor and materials for the sewage treatment plant. It is estimated that the labor cost will be about $33,000.

With the appropriation of $15,000 for materials and an additional $33,000 for labor, Gettysburg will have to raise approximately $22,000 to add all the necessary units to the disposal plant to insure 100 per cent effective operation.

FEDERAL AND STATE FORCES CLASH IN ALA.

By REX THOMAS
MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — An explosive new test of strength between the state and federal governments—unequaled since Little Rock—boiled up in Alabama today over the issue of Negro voting.

State and county officials who defied the U.S. Civil Rights Commission's first attempt to investigate complaints of racial discrimination stood their ground in the face of threatened federal court action.

The Justice Department in Washington, acting at the commission's request, started proceedings Tuesday to ask for a court order to compel voter registration officials to produce their records and answer questions about the conduct of their offices.

Working On Petition
U.S. District Atty. Hartwell Davis in Montgomery said a short time later his office was "working on" a petition to be filed with District Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr. but declined to say when the action might be taken.

Refusal to obey a federal court order, if Johnson issues one, could bring jail sentences for contempt. In the two-day hearing, which came to an abrupt halt Tuesday, six voter registrars refused to be questioned about registration of voters.

Files Unavailable
The commission was equally unsuccessful in getting access to the registration files it had subpoenaed in six counties. In one fashion or another they had all been turned over to local authorities.

Alabama Atty. Gen. John Patterson, who directed the massive resistance, denounced the hearing as an unwarranted invasion of states rights.

Patterson, 37-year-old governor-elect, said he welcomed the chance to fight it out in court, and promised to use "every means available to us" to protect the Alabama officials. While he didn't spell it out, it was almost certain that Patterson intends to appeal to higher courts if the district court orders the registration records surrendered to the commission.

Patterson's Reasons
A similar defiant challenge came from Circuit Judge George Wallace of Clayton, Ala., who refused even to appear at the commission hearing. He already had impounded registration records in two counties before the civil rights agency called for them.

Patterson based his action on the argument that:
1. The commission created by Congress has no right to see "private and confidential" registration files.
2. The registrars themselves are judicial officers whose official conduct cannot be questioned by the federal fact-finding agency.

KOPP RESIGNS AS BYU COACH
PROVO, Utah (AP) — Football Coach Harold W. Kopp was dicker with a major university for a new job today after quitting at Brigham Young University. But Kopp wouldn't say which school is trying to hire him.

"We're just in the process of talking it over. I think I ought to consider all offers," Kopp said.

In a terse statement released Tuesday by BYU President Ernest O. Wilkinson, Kopp said he felt he had accomplished what he set out to do at BYU—build the school into a football power.

He came to the Latter - Day Saints (Mormon) University in 1956 and compiled a 2-7-1 record. This year Kopp's team was favored to win the Skyline Conference championship, but it lost the title to Wyoming in the final game of the season and finished third. Kopp's over-all record here was 13-14-3.

Navy Tanker Plane Crashes At Norfolk And 6 Persons Die

Russian Visitors Greeted In Song
SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The sober faces of nine Russian educators broke into wide grins Tuesday when the group visited one classroom at the local Bonneville grade school.

The 20 boys and girls greeted the visitors in Russian, then sang a few Russian songs in the original language.

The Russians are on a tour to inspect American schools and educational practices.

Saw Crash Coming
James H. Miller, who works at the air station, said:

"I saw the plane when it was at least a half a mile away. At that time it was between 150 and 250 feet high and making a normal approach. . . I noticed as it came closer that the degree of bank of the wings became greater."

"Before the degree reached 90 degrees, I knew a crash was imminent. The plane was hot smoking and the engine didn't sputter."

One of the two homes smashed by the plane was unoccupied. In the other were Mrs. Joseph E. Tondora, wife of a Navy lieutenant, and two children, Joseph Jr., 14 months, and Michalee, two weeks old. Barbara, 10, was in school.

Had Developed Trouble
The dead crewmen were Lt. Cmdr. George Wilson, 38, of Norfolk, pilot; Ens. Fred M. Clancy III, 20, co-pilot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Clancy Jr., Kissimmee, Fla.; Airman Patrick F. Toomey, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Toomey, Durham, N. C.; and Aviation Mechanic 3e John E. Delaney, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy J. Delaney, Chelsea, Mass.

The Navy said the plane had refueled one jet over Chesapeake Bay and was refueling another when it developed engine trouble less than half an hour after take-off.

CHOOSE PLANT SITE
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Electric Co. and a number of affiliated firms have chosen Peach Bottom, Pa., as the site for a high performance nuclear power plant.

In making the announcement Tuesday night, PE said the selection of Peach Bottom, on the west side of the Susquehanna River about 10 miles upstream from the Conowingo Dam, must be approved by the Atomic Energy Commission.

WERNER TO RETIRE
UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — William L. Werner, professor emeritus of American literature at Pennsylvania State University, will retire Jan. 31, 1969, a university spokesman said Tuesday.

Professor Werner, a native of Philadelphia and a graduate of Muhlenberg College, joined the university staff in 1920 as an instructor in English. He had previously taught in the high schools of Pottsville and Lebanon.

In the heart of Paris there is a late-night place called The Crazy Horse. It is a French version of an American Wild West saloon.

2 KILLED WHEN BUS HITS TRUCK

BRIDGEWATER TOWNSHIP, N.J. (AP) — Two persons were killed and 11 others injured Tuesday night when a New York-bound bus crashed head-on with a small truck on icy Route 28.

The eastbound royal blue coach lines bus, carrying 17 passengers, swerved to avoid hitting an unlighted eastbound truck in front of it. The bus and the small westbound truck collided in the westbound lane.

Police said the eastbound truck, a tractor-trailer, failed to stop after the accident. They are trying to locate it. The truck apparently was traveling without lights.

Cards To Canada To Cost 4 Cents

WASHINGTON (AP) — It costs four cents to mail a Christmas card to Canada this year, whether it is sealed or not sealed.

The Post Office Department emphasized this today, because in past years unsealed cards to Canada went at the same rate as those to cities in this country.

The domestic rate for unsealed mail cannot now be used to any foreign destination. Instead such mail, including that to Canada, takes the international printed-matter rate of postage, which was raised last Aug. 1 to four cents for the first two ounces.

Psychology Major Used Whip On Wife

DETROIT (AP) — When her husband wasn't using his homemade whip on her, he left it hanging on the kitchen wall for psychological effect, testified Mrs. Laura Pajewski in a divorce petition.

She said he had majored in psychology in college and wanted her to "come up to his level of education."

The divorce was granted.

5 Killed, 4 Missing When Bomb Blasts Cult's Building

MARTIN TALKS ABOUT SESSION
CHATSWORTH, Calif. (AP) — A bomb demolished the main building of a religious cult in a mountain canyon today. Five persons were killed and four are missing and believed dead.

Among those missing is Krishna Vanta, bearded, barefoot mystic and founder of the cult.

A demolition expert from the Los Angeles police department said a bomb wrecked the sprawling building and touched off a raging fire. The five bodies recovered were burned beyond recognition.

Investigators learned that a stranger carrying a large suitcase was seen in a violent argument with Vanta shortly before 2 a.m. Twenty minutes after the stranger left a tremendous explosion blew the building apart.

30 Slept In Building
More than 30 persons were sleeping in the building at the time, 14 of them children. An 8-year-old girl is among those reported missing.

The remote canyon retreat is tucked away in mountains at the head of the San Fernando Valley, about 30 miles from Los Angeles.

Vanta, a former San Francisco shipyard worker, founded the cult about 10 years ago. He called himself a Messiah and attracted a following of about 100 men, women and children.

The group practiced communal living and promised a home to "all who want to live the Ten Commandments, regardless of race or creed."

Five Jewish structures have been damaged by bombs in three Southern states this year.

Providence, R. I., received its name from Roger Williams who said the city was founded "in commemoration of God's merciful providence."

HERSHEY HIGH
LIKELY TO BE
SP CONTENDER

(Fifth in a series of articles on prospects of South Penn Basketball League teams.)

HERSHEY — Gone are Lee Moyer and Fritz Schiller, the two lads who sparked the Hershey High cage machine last season, but the Trojans have the makings of another title contender.

Three lettermen — 5-11 Wayne Foust, 5-9 Jim (Rip) Rippon and 5-11 Jim Price — give the Chocolate town crew three experienced operators for its South Penn Conference championship bid.

Price, as a mere sophomore, poured through 187 points in conference combat last season, and appears headed for a banner campaign. He's the lad who quarterbacked the Hershey High football team.

Rippon also is well known for his gridiron achievements. The little scrapper earned All-Conference honors at a halfback slot this fall.

Other Candidates
Foust, Rippon, Jim Kling and Jim Warfield make up the senior contingent now working out under head coach John Hanshew. Juniors on the varsity include Price, Ken Snyder, Jim Horst, Bob Sinclair, Sterling Banta, Dave Jacoby, Scott Miller and George Warner.

The schedule:
December 9, Lebanon, 46-62; 12, Milton Hershey, away; 16, Palmyra, home; 19, "Gettysburg, home; 23, "Chambersburg, away; 26, Alumnus, home; 30, "Mechanicsburg, away.

BERMUDIAN JT.
RALLY FAILS

A 22-point rally in the final period proved futile as the Bermudian Joint dribblers lost 61-50 at Bowling Springs Tuesday evening.

The Bubblers piled up a 30-19 lead at the end of the first half which enabled them to withstand the strong finish by the Adams Countians.

Charley Chronister bombed the nets for 21 points and Bob Weigle added 12 to supply most of the punch for Bermudian. Kiracofe led the Bubblers with 25.

The Bermudian reserves lost the preliminary 38-20.

Bermudian will meet Dover at East Berlin Thursday evening.

FAIRFIELD HIGH
DROPS OPENER

Fairfield High opened its basketball campaign by dropping both ends of a twin bill to Emmitsburg Tuesday evening at Emmitsburg, the varsity bowing 45-40 and the reserves 29-18.

Emmitsburg took a 12-7 lead in the first period and led the rest of the way, leading at half time 30-22. Fairfield played improved ball in the second half but could not catch up.

Zentz was the big gun for the Marylanders with 18 points. Dave and Johnny Sprinkle sparked the losers with 17 and 11 points, respectively.

The Fairfield reserves dropped the opening game 29-18.

Taneytown will play at Fairfield Friday evening.

Bury Speaker In Texas Thursday

HUBBARD, Tex. (AP) — Tris Speaker, one of baseball's greatest centerfielders, will be laid to rest Thursday beside his parents in a hilltop cemetery studded with cedars.

Speaker, 70, died Monday of a heart attack while fishing 30 miles west of this central Texas town he called home.

Services are scheduled for 11:30 a.m. EST Thursday at the Wolfe Funeral Chapel here.

Messages of sorrow came from all over the world of baseball, mourning the passing of the hall of fame player who spent 22 years in the majors.

BOWS BY POINT
TONIGHT HAWKS

For the second straight time within four days the Delone Catholic Squires dropped a one-point marginal basketball game to their neighborhood rivals, the Hanover Nighthawks. Hanover edged the Squires 49-48 Tuesday evening on the Delone court before an overflow crowd.

Unlike the first game, Delone got off to a quick 5-4 lead after 2:30 minutes of play in the initial period and maintained their lead until the same time in the second half. At the end of the first period of play Coach John Flaherty's cagers were leading 20-15.

In the second frame both teams scored 10 points to make it 30-25 at half time with the home team out in front. Paul Gebhart, John Gastley and Dan Miller had kept the Squires in the game during the second frame on three one-handed push shots and four fouls. Gary Ampsacher and Dick Hamm enabled the Hawks to keep within striking distance of the Squires.

The third period broke wide open with Hanover outscoring Delone 19-10 behind the excellent ball handling and shooting of Ampsacher and Jim Heilman. Both teamed to score 17 of the 19 points. The sharp eye and quick hands of John Gastley kept Delone in contention although it proved to be a weak quarter for the Squires. At the end of three periods Hanover led 44-40.

Ampsacher Clinches Win
Ampsacher dunked a foul, jump shot and with one minute remaining landed a lay-up to give the Hawks the win. Gastley ripped the cords with two lay-ups followed by Miller's set and another drive by Gastley to complete the Delone scoring. A desperation shot on the buzzer by Gastley failed.

John Gastley, the standout grid star from Gettysburg, proved to be the big man for Delone as he tallied 19 points followed by Dan Miller's 12. Gary Ampsacher dunked 20 points for the Hawks followed by Jim Heilman's 14.

The Delone JV's one again ran into trouble as they fell behind in the early seconds of the game and went on to be swamped by the Hanover reserves 32-36. John Wolf topped the Delone scoring with nine points while Clarence Leister hit for 23 for the Hawks.

On Thursday Delone will entertain Spring Grove on the Delone court. Delone plays at Gettysburg on Friday.

RAIN DELAYS
DAVIS CUP PLAY

MELBOURNE (AP) — American's final two Davis Cup players, Barry MacKay and Alex Olmedo, were shut out of the sidelines in long, rain-plagued matches today in the finals of the Victorian Tennis Championships.

MacKay, fighting back repeatedly from the brink of defeat, lost a 2-day marathon duel to Andres Gimeno, 21-year-old son of a Barcelona professional, 6-3, 6-3, 10-12, 13-15, 6-1. The big Dayton boy's game seemed to collapse after a foot fault call cost him the opening game of the last set.

Olmedo, handsome Peruvian from the University of Southern California, battled Mal Anderson, Australia's Davis Cup ace, on virtually even terms for three sets then seemed to surrender meekly 4-6, 6-2, 15-13, 6-3. The match was finished in swirling winds with gusts up to 30 m.p.h.

In the semis, Gimeno next plays top seeded Ashley Cooper, Wimbledon and U.S. Champion who beat Bob Mark, Australia, Tuesday, 6-3, 6-3, 6-8, 12-10. Anderson faces Neale Fraser who won a match of Australian left-handers from Rod Laver 6-3, 6-2, 6-3.

Bullets Will Meet Albright
Here Tonight

Albright, sporting victories over Scranton and Dickinson, comes here tonight to battle the Gettysburg College cagers.

The Lions' veteran-studded outfit has been impressive in its two engagements and undoubtedly will be another stiff test for the Bullets who still are seeking their initial victory after three losses.

In the preliminary game the Bullet freshmen will meet the Albright yearlings at 6:45.

Mt. St. Mary's (1-2) opens its Mason-Dixon Conference schedule this evening against Baltimore on the Bees' floor.

CITADEL BOWS
TO W. VA. FOR ITS 4TH WIN

BY SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

There seems to be no stopping the West Virginia Mountaineers as they continue their domination of the Southern Conference.

West Virginia won 26 of its 28 starts last season to compile the best win-loss record among major college basketball teams. The Mountaineers won 12 straight conference games, captured their league's tournament championship and wound up as the nation's top-ranked team in the final Associated Press poll.

The lads of Coach Fred Schaum romped over The Citadel 89-61 Tuesday night for their fourth consecutive victory. It was the Mountaineers' third conference success and 39th in a row over a span of four seasons.

Ranked No. 4

West Virginia, ranked No. 4 in the first weekly poll, has won the Southern Conference tourney for the past four years. Last season the club bowed to Manhattan in the Eastern regional of the National College championships.

Only two other members of the top 10 teams saw action Tuesday night. North Carolina State, No. 5, edged Clemson 56-54 in an Atlantic Coast Conference game and sixth-rated Tennessee whipped Wake Forest 61-50 in a non-league affair.

West Virginia, which also has defeated Furman, VMI and Penn State this season, displayed its best brand of ball in outclassing The Citadel. The Mountaineers opened up a 12-point gap early in the second half and coasted the rest of the way.

Citadel Stymied
The Citadel, regarded as a possible threat to WVU's conference stranglehold, was stymied by the Mountaineers' pressing defense and went without a field goal for five minutes in the second half.

Bob Clouson, a 6-6 center who has to fill the shoes of the graduated Lloyd Sharrar, found the range for 19 points to spark the West Virginia attack. Jimmy Jerry West, the Mountaineers' sharp-shooting forward, was held to 11 points.

Dan Englehardt's 15-foot jump shot with eight seconds left gave North Carolina State its narrow victory over Clemson. The Wolf-pack came from behind to post its fourth triumph, scoring eight consecutive points in the final minutes as Clemson ran out of gas after leading 54-48.

N. C. Freezes

After Lou Pucillo tied the game with two minutes left, Clemson's Walt Gibbons missed a 1-and-1 free throw attempt with a minute to go. N.C. State froze the ball and set the stage for Englehardt's winning basket.

Tennessee, the Kent State Invitational Tournament winner last weekend, extended its victory streak to four at the expense of Wake Forest. The Volunteers broke the game wide open with a spurt in the last seven minutes, outscoring Wake Forest 17-6 after the teams had been tied at 44-44.

Ken Coulter was Tennessee's high man with 18 points but 6-8 Gene Tormohlen came off the bench to provide the scoring impetus in the late drive.

Other Results

St. Mary's, ranked 14th lost its first game after three wins. California nipped the Gaels 57-55 for the Golden Bears third straight success. Marquette, No. 17, stayed off a second half rally to turn back Creighton 53-49 as 6-9 Mike Moran collected 17 points.

In other significant games Texas A&M drubbed Sam Houston State 81-54 with five starters hitting double figures; Furman outclassed Erskine 75-55; Jim McDonald tallied 20 points to power Bowling Green of Ohio to a 75-61 lacing of Duquesne; Detroit withstood a late surge to nip Canisius 77-75; and Washington University of St. Louis edged host Centenary 56-54 after LSU topped Arkansas 67-58 in a doubleheader at Shrout, La.

Also Niagara trounced Villa Madonna 87-65. Harvard squeezed past Wesleyan 66-63. Navy torpedoes Dickinson 99-35. Boston College overpowered Northeastern 79-38; Connecticut drubbed New Hampshire 77-46; Washington State trimmed Whitworth 53-42; and Santa Clara breezed over Chico State 72-39.

Tris Speaker, who died Monday near Whitney, Texas, is shown in his playing days as a centerfielder for the Cleveland Indians. Tris, one of the immortals of the game, was named to the Baseball Hall of Fame and many times to all-time-great squads. Many regard him as the greatest centerfielder in the history of the baseball.

PAUL DIETZEL
NAMED BY AFCA
COACH OF '59

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul Dietzel, who in four years as head coach, built Louisiana State's first all-winning football team in 50 years, was named today as "Coach of the Year" by his fellow members of the American Football Coaches' Assn.

The 34-year-old Dietzel scored the greatest sweep in the 24-year history of the award, made by the Scripps-Howard newspapers.

Of 618 members of the association who voted in the annual poll, 495 named Dietzel first, second and third. Nearest to him in the balloting was Forest Evashevski of Iowa's Big Ten champion team, who received only 58 votes for first place, compared with 312 for Dietzel.

Dietzel came to LSU in 1955 after serving as assistant to Army's Earl (Red) Blaik, a former Coach of the Year; Sid Gillman of the Los Angeles Rams, then at the University of Cincinnati; and Paul (Bear) Bryant at Kentucky. He undertook a rebuilding program that paid off this year with ten straight victories and a national championship.

A total of 74 coaches figured in the Coach of the Year balloting. The award will be made during the football coaches convention in Cincinnati early in January. Dietzel, born in Fremont, Ohio, Sept. 5, 1924, played junior high and high school football in Mansfield, Ohio. He entered Duke University in 1942 and played on the freshman team there, then enlisted in the Air Force. After leaving the service, he entered Miami (Ohio) University, where Gillman was coach.

It was Gillman who got him the job as plebe coach at West Point.

KNICKS BOOST
LEAD IN NBA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The wear and tear of a tough season is threatening the New York Knickerbockers' hold on first place in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Assn.

But despite minor injuries that restricted the activities of Cliff Braun, the team's playmaker, and Kenny Sears, the leading scorer, the Knicks had stretched their lead over the Boston Celtics to a full game today.

Braun, after taking pre-game heat treatments for his injured thigh, was in action less than two minutes Tuesday night against the Minneapolis Lakers. And Sears, troubled by a bruised heel, saw limited action and scored only eight points in New York's 110-97 victory.

The game was the second half of a Madison Square Garden doubleheader in which the Syracuse Nationals took clear possession of third place in the Eastern Division by beating the Philadelphia Warriors 106-90 in the opener. The two teams had been tied before the game.

Although the Knickerbockers have lost six of their last nine games, after a 10-1 record at the start of the season, their current 13-7 standing puts them one full game ahead of Boston.

CASEY PICKS
CHICAGO FOR RUNNERS-UP

KARNACK, Tex. (AP) — Casey Stengel took time out from a hunting trip Tuesday to snipe at the National League and to predict Chicago will run his Yankees a close second in the American League in 1959.

"We have a great chance to win the pennant again because we have very good age," Stengel told newsmen at this east Texas resort.

"I mean we don't have many real old men, unless you want to call (catcher Yogi) Berra and (outfielder Hank) Bauer old. And we've got some promising youngsters coming up."

National Loop Fading

But of the National League he sniffed, it "had a reputation of being a stronger league until last year. Now a lot of their stars are getting older and have lost much of their skill."

Casey, for a change, didn't explain.

He said Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and Boston, in that order, are the next best teams in the American League.

Then, roaming through the Yankee roster, he said he has "always had more faith in Don Larsen than the front office." He said he might let the pitcher, who hurled a perfect game in a world series, have a try at the regular left field position next year.

"He has always been plagued by injuries," Stengel said. "He is a great runner, a good hitter and when in good form a sensational hitter."

BUD BANKERT
FETES BOLTS'
GRID SQUAD

Littleton High School's Laurel Conference football champions were guests at a dinner given by Karl "Bud" Bankert, father of two members of the squad, at Bankert's Restaurant, Littleton, Tuesday evening.

Robert Waldorf, head football coach at Western Maryland College, was the principal speaker. He told the squad members that as members of the squad they would earn the tag of "football player" and that later their play as "good or bad" would also be reflected in their paths of life.

Waldorf showed films of the Western Maryland-Johns Hopkins game which was won by his Terriers.

Clayton Evans, Littleton's athletic director, presided as master of ceremonies. The invocation was given by Dave Salsberg, a student at Gettysburg College who is doing his student teaching at Littleton.

During the 1958 season Littleton won eight straight games after losing its opener to Shippensburg. In Laurel play the Bolts were unbeaten with a 5-0 mark.

In addition to the squad, members of the coaching staff were guests at the dinner.

TWO NFL BACKS
IN CLOSE RACE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A pair of the National Football League's veteran quarterbacks are in a close race for seasonal passing honors.

Eddie Lebaron of the Washington Redskins leads Bobby Layne of the Pittsburgh Steelers with a per pass average of 9.23 to 8.58. Lebaron didn't throw a pass while playing about half of last Sunday's game against Pittsburgh hand his record for 1958 remained at 72 completions for 128 attempts, 1,181 yards gained and 10 touchdowns.

Layne, who has piloted the Pittsburgh Steelers into third place in the NFL's Eastern Division, has tried 245, completed 122 for 2,101 and 12 TDs. The former Detroit Lions' ace, traded to the Steelers early in the season, has passed his team to 5 victories and a tie.

In the ground gaining department, Cleveland's record breaking Jimmy Brown snapped out of a two-game slump to roll for 138 yards against the Philadelphia Eagles. The Browns' Brown now has a total 1,379 yards on 231 carries. Baltimore's Alan Ameche is a distant second with 777 for 162.

In scoring, Brown leads with 102 points — 17 TDs — but for the third straight week failed to top the old record of 18 touchdowns in a season held by Steve Van Buren, former star of the Philadelphia Eagles.

Shows Increase

NEW YORK (AP) — Thoroughbred racing showed slight gains in both attendance and wagering in 1958 despite the recession, the annual Associated Press survey of the sport disclosed Tuesday.

Reports from racing commissions in the 24 states where flat racing with parimutuel wagering is legalized showed 29,966,453 spectators were attracted to the running tracks compared with 29,369,495 in 1957. This was an increase of 2.100 per cent, although the reports are as yet unofficial and in some cases incomplete.

The parimutuel turnover totaled $2,258,389,322, up 0.061 per cent from the $2,257,011,261 of a year ago.

When official reports are completed after the first of the year, they also will show big turnouts for trotting and state fair racing.

DOWNES LOSES
BUT ASKS FOR RETURN BOUT

LONDON (AP) — Middleweight contender Spider Webb today offered British champion Terry Downes a return bout "any time the money's right" and said he was ready to take on any other middleweight who wants to get into the ring with him.

The offer, made after the 27-year-old Chicago fighter had stopped Downes in eight rounds of a rugged, bloody battle, pointedly excluded world champion Ray Robinson. Webb, third-ranked contender for Robinson's title, claims that Ray doesn't want to get into the ring.

Stopped By Referee

Referee Eugene Webb stopped Tuesday night's bout after eight rounds of action that had 10,000 fans roaring in excitement all the way. Blood was pouring from cuts above both of 22-year-old Downes' eyes and they were puffed, almost closed. Downes, who learned his persistent, swarming style of fighting in amateur bouts in America, immediately demanded a return bout.

"I'm ready to come back and give you a return any time — if the money's right," Webb told him.

Carl Nelson, the American's trainer, added:

"Webb will fight any middleweight who wants to go into the ring against him, if a purse is waiting, and that includes a return against Downes — if Downes really wants another go."

Webb weighed 158½ pounds and Downes 159½.

NEW TENNIS COACH

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Kenneth Webb, a member of the Muhlenberg College faculty since 1946, has been named tennis coach at the school, succeeding Dr. John V. Shankweiler.

The announcement was made Tuesday by Muhlenberg Athletic Director Ray Whipple. Dr. Shankweiler resigned last summer after 25 years of coaching.

Webb, a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, teaches in the Romance Languages Department.

Final statistics from the NCAA Service Bureau disclosed today that Bass accomplished a feat that was last performed in 1937 by Byron (Whizzer) White of Colorado. White captured the triple crown that season.

Bass accumulated 1,361 yards of 265 rushing plays — an all-time high of 6.63 yards per carry, for 200 or more rushes. The 21-year-old junior collected 79 yards on 13 passes for a total offense of 1,440 touchdowns and eight extra points in 10 games.

Santa and the ELF BOY

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

SYNOPSIS: Professor Szpilki and his daughter swear they did not write the note calling for help that Esteban found. But as Esteban leaves he sees a look of terror in the girl's eyes. He feels she is telling him to come back.

CHAPTER SIX A TERRIBLE TALE

When the castle door shut Esteban didn't know what to do. Did the professor's little girl really want him to come back? Or was it all just his imagination?

"How could she be afraid of her father?" he asked himself. "He is so pleasant and kind. I must stop being such a fool or the Queen Fairy will never give me back my wings and I shall never be an elf again."

But halfway down the hill he remembered again the terror in Charlotte's eyes.

"It's no use," he moaned. "I cannot go away until I see her again."

He turned back. The wind howled and sent shivers down his back. He stood in the storm watching the castle until the lights disappeared downstairs and then shone again, one in a second floor window and one in a third floor window.

"Which window is hers?" wondered Esteban.

By and by both lights went out and still Esteban could not decide which room belonged to Charlotte. Finally he pulled the little blue bird from his shirt and said, "Blue bird, blue bird, fly, if you can,

Esteban pulled himself hand over hand up the castle wall.

to the right window."

The blue bird fluttered her wings in the rain and flew away. Esteban could see nothing but presently he heard above the wind the sound of the bird pecking at a window.

Suddenly the light appeared again on the third floor. The window was thrown open and Charlotte's head appeared. Esteban rushed forward and grasping the vines of ivy which covered the castle he pulled himself up hand over hand until he reached the girl's room.

The little blue bird followed him into the room and Esteban put her back inside his shirt. Charlotte was crying. "If you hadn't come back I don't know what I would have done. There's so little time left and it's almost Christmas and just think, if . . ."

"Wait!" cried Esteban. "You're going much too fast for me. First of all — did you write the note I found in the slipper?"

Charlotte clasped her hands. "Oh, yes! And you, you do believe in fairies, don't you?"

"I should say so!" exclaimed Esteban. "You see, I'm an elf really. I mean I was." And he told her the story of how he had lost his wings.

"Then you'll understand how awful this is," cried Charlotte. "There has been absolutely no one I could turn to because so many people don't believe in fairies or don't care, or think I'm out of my head and, oh, I just don't know what we can do!"

Esteban threw himself in a chair. "Begin at the beginning and tell me the whole story." "I'm telling you!" cried Charlotte. "My father is going to get rid of every fairy on earth!" Esteban leaped to his feet.

"What?" "My father has made a powerful gas. He is going to release it on Christmas Day and destroy all fairies. That means there will be no more Santa Claus or tooth fairies or goblins or witches or Queen Fairy or, or . . ."

"Or maybe even me!" cried Esteban in horror.

Emmitsburg

TAX RISE AND SEWER RENTAL ONLY WAY OUT

The sewer system extension and improvement in Emmitsburg is costing money and the money must be found. The burgess and the commissioners, faced with the threat of being forced by the state to act, took advantage of state and federal grants to get the current project under way, feeling that it was the best time to get the job done with the least cost, on the local level.

But in recent weeks they have had to consider the exact means by which they are going to raise the money. To meet bond obligations and other sewer costs the town budget is going up nearly $20,000 and increased taxes and sewer rental appear to be the only answer.

When the council announced recently that it had decided on a tax increase from 50 cents to 70 cents per $100 of valuation and a sewer charge of $25 annually, citizens began to sit up and take notice.

Citizens Turn Out

When the council met again Monday night with an invitation to the citizens to come in with their suggestions, 16 citizens responded, mostly by protest. But, when faced with the realities of the financing problem, they offered little that the commissioners felt to be helpful in setting the basis on which the money is to be raised.

Atty. Edward D. Storm, of Emmitsburg and Frederick, explained that the obligation of the bond issue must be met and this, he said, means that the council must have $5,000 to retire five bonds and about $8,000 for interest in the coming year.

Some citizens suggested that the financing should have been spread over a longer period than the 30 years in which the $240,000 of the town borrowed must be repaid. But the commissioners pointed out that they had been unable to get a reasonable offer for bonds over a longer period. The bonds which Emmitsburg sold are at interest rates from 3 to 3.4 per cent, which, Storm said, is a very favorable rate compared to interest rates on similar issues elsewhere.

Long Run Saving

Commissioner Charles Fuss explained the council's reasoning in selling the 30-year bonds. "We had to do that to save money in the long run."

The discussion contained the hint that, had the bond issue been financed over a longer period, the higher interest rate would have approached that of the 30-year financing. No figures to support this were presented, however.

The council and its attorney were solid in backing the position that action on the sewer project had to be taken. "The Health Department has been after Emmitsburg for years to do something," Storm said. "In some towns where they did not follow Health Department regulations, they have had to do it themselves." He cited as an example Middletown, Md., where, he said, annual sewer rent is $90.

"You all know the conditions at 14. The slender former Marine admitted shooting the woman but claimed it was accident."

Says Assistance Should Be Raised

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Randolph E. Wise, welfare commissioner of Philadelphia, said Tuesday state public assistance grants should be increased by about 30 per cent.

Wise told an opening session of public hearings by the State Board of Public Assistance that the increase was the absolute minimum required to maintain a decent standard of living.

The hike would bring the total assistance grants for Pennsylvania to 445 million dollars biennially. The state appropriation would be 278 millions.

Flat Run." Commissioner Wales Rightnow said. "If there had been an epidemic you all could not have gotten to the hardware store fast enough to get rope to hang the mayor and the commissioners." He was referring to the present sewer situation. Emmitsburg has a sewage treatment plant along Flat Run Creek to accommodate the VPA installed sewer system which serves part of the town. Effluent from the plant into that creek is partly to blame for state pressure for action by the town. Rightnow said that present condition present a disease hazard.

In the new system, sewage will be pumped from the Flat Run plant location about one and a half miles to a new plant along the larger Toms Creek. The project also includes extension of sewer mains throughout the town.

Sewer rentals on the old WPA installed system have been $5 yearly but will also be increased to the proposed $25 per family unit. Rates for commercial and other classes of service were discussed by the council but final action remains to be taken.

Sharpen Pencils

Although the citizens pressed for relief from the increased cost of taxes and sewer rentals, they could offer no painless plan despite the invitation of Storm. He said of the council, "It's up to them to work out a plan. You can help them with your suggestions."

Some of the items council must consider in setting the 1959 budget are indefinite, Storm added. We have to be sure we have enough," he said. State and federal aid amounts are not definitely known nor are the actual operation costs, estimated at $6,400 or more.

Storm assured the citizens that the council will keep costs pared. "You can count of these men keeping this as low as possible."

The commissioners, burgess and attorney did carry on their budget discussion until nearly midnight and settled on the 70 cent tax rate, the $25 sewer rental per

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—The biggest weakness in what the Democratic Advisory Council recommends is that the two most powerful Democrats in Congress—Speaker Sam Rayburn and Sen. Lyndon Johnson—are not members of the council.

The council includes some of the very top Democrats—like former President Harry S. Truman, Adlai Stevenson, New York's Gov. Averell Harriman—but when it was created two years ago Rayburn and Johnson, both of Texas, refused to join.

If they had accepted membership, they would have committed themselves to follow through on what the council recommended. By standing aloof they can pretty well pick and choose what they want to push or fight for.

Goals, Hopes, Intentions

Since the Democrats lost the presidential election in 1956, the party was left without any real single head for the next four years. The council attempts to assert some leadership.

Thus the program it outlined Sunday for Democrats in Congress to follow in 1959 was a statement of goals, hopes and intentions. It's been called the Democrats' "State of the Union message."

Next month, as usual at the beginning of each session of Congress, President Eisenhower will present his own State of the Union message, outlining his programs and ideas for 1959.

Both houses of Congress will listen attentively and then suit themselves about what they will accept, reject, modify or expand family unit, a $20 sewer connection fee, and a 50-cent tax rate on inventories. The council considered cuts in nearly every budget item.

Final budget and tax action will be taken at another session when better estimates of several incomes and expense items can be had. The tax and budget action must be taken before January 1, the attorney said.

Pay Bills

Payment of $37,601.29 to W. F. Wilson and Son, Brookville, contractor for the sewer project, was approved for November. This brings total payment on the $295,600 contract to $111,808.40.

Also approved was a bill from Knecht and Maxwell, Pikesville, engineers for the project, of $1,476.09. Previous payments to the engineers total $2,781.85.

from all the proposals Eisenhower makes.

Jealous Of Rights

The same will be true of the congressional attitude towards the Democratic Advisory Council's ideas.

Members of Congress, and this certainly goes for their leaders, are very jealous of the rights, privileges and prerogatives of the legislative branch of the government.

They reserve to themselves the right to make the final decisions on any proposals from the executive branch, headed by Eisenhower, or from any outsider or group of outsiders, like the Democratic Advisory Council.

Two Conservatives

Rayburn, boss of the House Democrats, and Johnson, leader of the Democrats in the Senate, are both conservative. The Democratic Advisory Council's recommendations were both more liberal and more far-ranging than anything being talked about by Rayburn and Johnson.

For example: The council suggested making the law tougher to give the government a stronger hand in protecting civil rights; it suggested the Senate soften its rules to make it easier to smash filibusters.

Again and again the Southern Democrats have used the filibuster—which, under present Senate rules, gives them the right to almost unlimited debate—to block civil rights legislation.

But the fact remains the new Congress, where the Democrats have an overwhelming majority, will have to look to Rayburn and Johnson for leadership.

Both men in the past have shown an amazing ability to get from their fellow Democrats and even from many Republicans cooperation and approval on the various pieces of legislation they wanted to see get through.

For both men next year the job of shepherding the legislation they want may be tougher, if only because there will be more Democrats in Congress.

PUC RULES ON NEW BUS FARES

HARRISBURG (AP)—The public utility commission Tuesday flagged a plan by nine inter-city bus lines to increase fares on short distance rides that now cost up to 50 cents.

At the same time the PUC accepted a 6 per cent overall boost in fares of a dollar or more charged by these lines, effective Dec. 15. Fares costing between 55 cents and one dollar would go up a nickel under the new PUC action.

The nine bus lines, operating on long hauls between cities in Pennsylvania, have sought fare boosts that would have amounted up to 33 1/3 per cent for short-distance riders.

The affected lines are Greyhound, operating throughout Pennsylvania; Harmony Short Line, Pittsburgh; Allentown and Reading Transit Co., Allentown; Edwards Motor Transit Co., Williamsport; Reading Transportation Co., Philadelphia; Frank Martz Coach Co., Wilkes-Barre; Lehigh Valley Transit Co.; Royal Blue Coaches, Inc., Clinton, N.J.; and Potomac Motor Lines, Inc., Hagerstown, Md.

The net effect of the PUC order would be no fare change at all for riders now paying 50 cents or less. Those paying between 55 cents and a dollar would pay no more than 5 cents additional. Those paying more than a dollar would pay an extra 6 per cent to the closest nickel.

PSEA GROUP WANTS P.A. TO TAKE OVER AND PAY TEACHERS

By FRED B. WALTERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—A committee of the Pennsylvania State Education Assn. recommended today that the state take over actual operation of school districts that default in the payment of teachers' salaries.

The reaction of Dr. Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of public instruction, was that he favored the idea if it was limited to those districts with habitual payless payments.

The superintendent added that such a program might prod such districts into taking the necessary steps to meet teacher salary obligations.

Prepare For Convention

The recommendation was made by the PSEA's Committee on Unpaid Teachers' Salaries in a report prepared for the association's annual convention here Dec. 20-21.

The committee suggested that legislation empowering the Department of Public Instruction to take over operation of defaulting districts be supported in the 1959 General Assembly by the PSEA.

The committee also proposed that legislation be supported to force reorganization of school districts delinquent in the payment of teachers' salaries. These districts also would be required to pay interest to teachers on unpaid salaries.

aries.

Who Pays Interest?
On the latter recommendation, a decision is pending from the Department of Justice on whether school boards or teachers themselves must pay the interest on bank loans made to meet salary commitments.

Dr. Boehm said almost any district could fall behind in salary payments. Delays in receipt of tax money or of state aid are common reasons for such delinquency, he said.

The superintendent said any legislation directing his department to take over delinquent districts should be pointed specifically to chronic offenders.

"We certainly wouldn't want to take over these districts and run them for any long period of time," Dr. Boehm added.

35 In Arrears Now
"But such legislation might be the prodding they (the districts) need to put economies into effect and step up collection of taxes in order to be able to operate on a sound financial basis and pay their salaries regularly."

Dr. Herbert E. Bryan, director of the department's Bureau of School Business Services, said a joint survey of the department and the PSEA disclosed about 35 school districts in arrears in payment of teachers' salaries.

The state can advance special aid to financially distressed school districts beyond its regular subsidies, but Dr. Bryan said the $400,000 allocation by the 1957 Legislature is almost depleted.

DAVLIN SILENT AFTER REBUFF BY LAWRENCE

HARRISBURG (AP)—

Commerce Secretary William R. Davlin remained silent today in the face of criticism by Gov.-elect David L. Lawrence who said Davlin had no right to say he was going to be reappointed to the Cabinet post.

Lawrence told newsmen Tuesday that "there was no foundation for him (Davlin) to say what he did."

But Lawrence made it clear that he still had Davlin under consideration for the $200,000-a-year post.

Not Out Of Running

Davlin told a Scranton television audience last week that Lawrence had asked him to stay on as commerce secretary during his administration which begins Jan. 16. Davlin said he accepted the offer.

"He (Davlin) had no right to make that statement," Lawrence said.

Asked specifically if his comment meant Davlin was out of the running for the post, Lawrence replied:

"I'm not saying he won't be reappointed."

Name Some Soon

Reached at his home, Davlin told a newsmen:

"I have no comment to make on it."

At a brief session with newsmen following a meeting of Democratic House members, Lawrence also promised that he would name half a dozen or more Cabinet members in the next few days.

"I talked to a few of them (likely members) today and I hope to have groups of them to name at one time," Lawrence said.

"I hope to have six, seven or eight to name within a few days," he added.

May Save Weeks

He also expressed doubt that he would go along with a recommendation by Rep. H. G. Andrews (D-Cambria) that the House recess after returning to Harrisburg to give the administration six weeks to prepare its program.

"I am going to meet with the Tax Study Commission I appointed next week," Lawrence said. "I named them unofficially before I was inaugurated in hopes that I might be able to save those weeks," he explained.

Endorsed Andrews

He said the Andrews' proposal was one designed to give the incoming chief executive a breathing spell which he said he may not require if his tax program can be ready sooner.

At the meeting Andrews, 82, was unanimously endorsed as the Democratic candidate for House Speaker—action tantamount to his election since the Democrats hold the edge of 108-102 in that chamber.

Lawrence said he told the Democratic House members to "be in their seats every day to vote."

"I told them they have to work hard to get the program through and if they are not in their seats, with this thin margin of control people will blame them for not living up to campaign promises," Lawrence added.

LITTLE PRAISE FOR TV PLAY ON O. HENRY TALE

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—When a musical version of "The Gift of The Magi" was opened on CBS-TV Tuesday night, the audience found that all that glitters is not gold.

The O. Henry short story is a tremendous trifle leading to a trick ending that has lost its irony as a result of long familiarity.

A fellow sells his valued watch to buy his beloved wife Christmas gift combs for her beautiful golden hair, while his wife sells her hair to buy him a Christmas gift fob for his valued watch.

Music Mediocre

The music and lyrics by Richard Adler were mediocre and failed to advance the story in any discernible way. On the other hand, the story plunges downhill and over the cliff so fast that it had to be stopped frequently for enough music and business to give the audience a full hour ride.

Gordon MacRae was excellent as one of the original organization men who sold his watch. Sally Ann Howes was a charming wife, lovely enough to make him want to sell his watch.

But neither could overcome the fact that they were playing in a broad, absurd bit of teletheater. The commodity of exchange with the audience was corn.

Xmas Cost Mounts

Although it glittered at rare moments, the production did not reveal the solid gold of good entertainment.

Speaking of gold, O. Henry received less than $500 for his Christmas story but his estate reportedly collected $40,000 for television rights for this adaptation. The cost of Christmas mounts each season without marked improvement in its spirit.

TV-conscious politicians reportedly are listening carefully to the suggestions and pleas of the three major television networks in the choice of a 1960 national convention site.

Says Adams Will Write $100,000 Book

BOSTON, Mass. (AP)—The

Boston Globe said Tuesday Sherman Adams, former assistant to President Eisenhower, will get $100,000 for a book on the Eisenhower administration.

The Globe article said of Adams: "He will sign in the next few days a contract with Harper Brothers and Life magazine at a figure of around $100,000, according to New York publishing circles."

Adams declined comment.

The newspaper said Adams has been working on his book almost constantly since he quit his White House job after charges of using influence for his friend, Bernard Goldfine, gift-giving Boston industrialist. Adams denied any attempt to influence federal agencies with which Goldfine had dealings.

ROAD TAKEN BY MRS. KRAVITZ IS IMPORTANT

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—What

road did Mrs. Ethel Kravitz take when she drove to her brother-in-law's home the afternoon her husband was murdered?

Two detectives testified at her trial Monday that she gave different accounts of the road she took to the home of Morris Passon.

Capt. William Shaffer of Lower Merion Township said Mrs. Kravitz told him she used Sussex Road. Chief Charles Moody of the Montgomery County Detention Center said she told of using Haverford Road.

4 Roads Possible

The slim, 45-year-old Mrs. Kravitz whimpered quietly during this testimony. There are four roads she could have taken for the drive from her home to Passon's, both in fashionable Wynnwood.

The one she took is important because the pistol allegedly used to kill Max Kravitz, 48-year-old Carson's return.

real estate broker, was found alongside Morris Road, one of the routes.

Mrs. Kravitz is accused of the July 4 killing. She has denied the charge. Her husband's body was found when Mrs. Kravitz and Passon returned to her home later that afternoon.

Patrolman Testifies

Patrolman Howard Rundall also testified. He said he saw a revolver similar to the one the prosecution says was used in the slaying. Rundall said Kravitz showed him the weapon when he was at the victim's house investigating a burglary in 1957. As Rundall told the court about the pistol Mrs. Kravitz moaned, "Oh my God! He didn't."

Rundall said Kravitz told him he kept the old, corroded revolver in the house for protection. Earlier, an FBI expert had testified the bullets recovered from Kravitz' body may have been fired from a rusted gun.

"Kit" Carson, famed scout, pioneer and Indian fighter in the earlier days of New Mexico, ran away from his employer in Missouri when he was 16. His employer offered a reward of one cent for to kill Max Kravitz, 48-year-old Carson's return.

Chief Of Red Secret Police Has Been Perilous Position

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
AP Foreign News Analyst

The removal of army Gen. Ivan Serov as chief of Soviet security—or the secret police—is a reminder that this powerful position is one of the most dangerous and thankless in the world.

Most men who have held it have come to a bad end.

Felix Dzerzhinsky was the first Soviet security and secret police head. He took office Dec. 20, 1917.

Dzerzhinsky died of a heart attack July 20, 1926, after delivering a violent attack on enemies of Joseph Stalin.

Don't Last Long

Vyacheslav Menzhinsky held the security job eight years. The official record says that Menzhinsky was poisoned in 1934 "by the Trotskyite-Bukharinite enemies of the people."

Nikolai Yezhov, Yagoda's successor, was the bloodiest of the lot. He gave his name to the worst massacre of intellectuals the Communists carried out—Stalin's purge of 1937-38, known as the "Yezhovshchina." He lasted until Dec. 8, 1938, and shortly after disappeared into his own execution chambers.

Beria Executed Too

Next came Lavrenty Beria, who was in and out of control of the secret police for nearly 15 years. Beria was arrested June 25, 1953, and executed as a traitor.

Victor S. Abakumov lasted from 1946 to late 1951 when he was arrested. Abakumov was shot in 1954 on charges of framing the Leningrad trial as a result of which many prominent Soviet

Prisoner Given Another Sentence

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Joseph A. (Shots) Kelly, who has spent more than 20 of his 48 years in jail, was sentenced to another 4 to 12 years Monday for killing an inmate at Eastern State Penitentiary.

Samuel I. Crino was killed in 1942. Kelly, however, was sent to a State Hospital for the Criminally Insane until 1956. He pleaded guilty Monday to voluntary manslaughter.

His new terms will run concurrently with those he is now serving for robbery and burglary. He is due to get out of jail in 1963.

Communists were executed. More recent Soviet police chiefs include Semyon Ignatiev, appointed in 1952 and fired in March 1953 and subsequently blamed for participation in the so-called "doctors' plot" which was exposed as a frameup organized by Joseph Stalin.

Serov Since '54

Sergei Kruglov was made minister of internal affairs as successor to the arrested Beria in June 1953. He was dismissed without explanation in February 1956. The most recent security authority—called the KGB, pronounced "kay-gay-bay"—standing for committee on state security—was formed to take over intelligence, counterintelligence and key security matters generally. Gen. Serov was named chairman when it was set up in early 1954.

Bare-bosomed Las Vegas Girls Disgusted With Men They Meet

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The imported strippers at the Stardust Hotel hide little but their thoughts—and it's a good thing they do.

All 12 of these bare-bosomed beauties are disgusted with American men, and with American women too.

The men shout obscenities at them. The women giggle so loudly that a few have been asked to leave.

These girls, members of the Lido Club troupe from Paris, always regarded themselves as artists—until they played Las Vegas. Now, after seven months of indignities, they feel cheapened. At least one of them plans to quit.

Marriage Not In Mind

When the girls first came here, they thought Las Vegas would be a wonderful place to meet American millionaires. Some of them did—to their shame and sorrow.

Red-haired Anne Gibson, 20, was introduced to a wealthy American soon after arriving here from London last May.

Did he propose marriage? "No, he proposed something else," Anne said. "I got up and left the table."

Katinka Bleeker, who used to Little Miss Lisa Kephart, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Kephart, Lutherville, formerly of Taneytown, and granddaughter of Mrs. Charles B. Kephart, R. 2, has completed a year of piano study at Peabody School and will play in a student recital Thursday at 3 p.m. at the school in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sentz, Gettysburg R. 5, were Sunday guests of Mr. Sentz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sentz, Frederick St.

Miss Doris Stonifer, Washington, D. C., spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moffitt, R. 2.

The following men were nominated for the consistory in Emmanuel United Church of Christ for 1959 and 1960: Elders, Monroe Wantz, Monroe Simpson, William De Groot; deacons, Wilbur Long, William Maus, Marvin Bailey; trustees, Donald Hess, Bernard Stahley, Douglas Rhoten.

be a photographers' model in Amsterdam, summed up the Troupe's attitude toward American men.

Don't Like Men

"They are not nice," said the 19-year-old blonde. "I don't like people who like to buy things with money."

The strippers share the spotlight in the show with the Bluebells, a troupe of dancers from England who do not appear on stage uncovered. Some of the Bluebells also have a low opinion of American men.

Complains Bluebell Anke Linschoten, 19, of Amsterdam: All they talk about is their cars and their money.

Won't Stay With Show

Linda Evans, 20, who appeared with the show at the Lido in Paris without shame, says, "I don't like showing my busts to these men." Linda does not plan to stay with the show.

Most of the girls, however, still see nothing wrong with nudity.

Many Freakish Accidents Occur In U.S., Here're Some

Another series of freak accidents that occurred across the U. S. last year have been released by the National Safety Council as follows:

Jack Hope, brother of comedian Bob Hope, and Chief Petty Officer Leroy Thomas agreed by telephone to meet at Malibu, Calif., to discuss a show at the Port Hueneme Naval Base. They met an hour early as their cars collided on the highway. Neither was hurt.

In Chicago, 18-month-old April Marie Owens managed to become entangled in a child's portable toilet seat she had ingeniously draped around her neck like a collar. Neighbors and police finally de-throned her, and everything is hoity toity now.

Pulling into Marathon, Tex., at midday on a hunting trip, Jack Lourie decided to take a nap on a mattress fitted into his station wagon. The sun's rays passed through a gallon jug of water, hit the mattress and set it afire. The flames spread to a box of shotgun shells. Two of the shells exploded, broke the water jug, and the water put out the fire. Water story!

To many a GI, saluting an officer is a pain in the neck. But to Sgt. Joe Palacio it was a pain in the shoulder. He dislocated his shoulder snapping off a sharp salute at Ft. Huachuca, Ariz.

Mrs. Frazzle Brozeman was ironing in her home in Detroit when she learned her mother's home was on fire three blocks away. She ran to watch firemen put out the blaze, then returned to her own home—to find firemen battling another fire caused by her hot iron. It was depressing.

Floyd and Gene Wilkins, of Little Rock, Ark., met on the highway — head-on. The first thing each driver did was rush to the other car and display sincere regret over the damage. They weren't just being noble. An hour before they had swapped cars for the day.

Police in Three Rivers, Mich., asked 11-year-old Tommy Kline how he happened to ram his bicycle into a moving car. "You won't believe this," Tommy told them, "but I fell asleep at the handlebars." They sentenced him to a good night's sleep.

In Des Moines, 81-year-old George McCurdy momentarily forgot the goal of the sponsoring group, put a little too much zing into his footwork, fell and cracked his knee at the Saturday night dance of the Safety Always Club.

It's disconcerting to fall out of a bathtub under any circumstances. But imagine Chuck Zordel's embarrassment when he did it in the middle of Main Street! Chuck was in a tub mounted on a float entered by a plumbing firm in a parade in Aspen, Colo. He leaned far out to wave to admiring spectators, and fell out. The tub tumbled on top of him. Neither was seriously hurt.

In Lansing, Mich., 11-year-old Randy Glum was trapped by a freight train on a railroad bridge. He hit the deck and lay flat between the rails while a string of boxcars rum-

World Briefs

LONDON (AP) — Soviet submarines are to range the world's oceans on special charting missions.

Moscow radio Tuesday said the subs would follow up work done by Soviet scientists in connection with the International Geophysical Year program. Together with surface vessels, they will conduct oceanographic surveys "in various areas of the world's oceans," particularly in the Southern Hemisphere.

The broadcast said the first of a fleet of specially equipped submarines will put to sea shortly to make a survey for the Soviet Research Institute of Marine Fishery and Oceanography.

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Premier Abdel Karim Kassem's government Tuesday claimed it had smashed a plot against it. A communique said "foreign elements" were involved with Iraqi plotters. The announcement said the attempt on the government was timed for today and Wednesday.

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — Two young Greek-Cypriot society girls were sentenced Tuesday to nine months in prison for carrying a hand grenade.

One of them threw it at a police vehicle but said she left the pin in so it wouldn't explode. The girls, Anna Melissa, 20, and Yioulia Marcellou, 18, said two men had given them the grenade on Nov. 4 and ordered them to throw it.

Anna is the daughter of a former Supreme Court judge. Yioulia's father is a bank official.

NAGOYA, Japan (AP) — Mrs. Fumio Tanizawa and her five children, aged 1 to 11, were found dead from gas poisoning in their home Monday night.

Police also found that the gas came from a hot water heater whose chimney was stopped up by a rubber ball and an empty box.

"Obviously one of the children put the stuff into the chimney while playing," a policeman said.

HELSINKI, Finland (AP) — Communist China has joined the Soviet Union in applying diplomatic pressure for Finland to bring Communists into its government. Government sources disclosed today that Peiping withdrew its ambassador in October and has not submitted the name of a successor. The Soviet ambassador departed in September and his post also remains vacant.

Turn about is fair play, as any raccoon will tell you. So when Leslie Meserve fired at a furry fugitive in Hollis, Maine, the raccoon came down out of the tree and bopped his enemy good and hard on the head. Meserve's pistol was discharged accidentally, and he was shot in the leg.

It cost Mrs. Jack Bardill $15.15 to mail a birthday card to a friend who was only 15 feet away from her in Princeton, Ky. Mrs. Bardill dropped the card into the mail box and backed her auto into the car — of her husband. It cost her 15 cents for the birthday card and $15 to fix up the friend's car. Happy birthday!

When the Bradley Transportation Line set a new world's safety record by going more than 1,000 days without a lost-time accident, the company threw a big celebration in Rogers City, Mich., with fancy food, triumphal music and supersharp steel knives as favors. Proudly inspecting his knife, First Mate Norman Raymond of a Bradley freighter cut his finger so severely he had to have first aid. His face was as red as his bandage.

In his work with the National Safety Council, Paul Jones constantly admonishes less prudent people to wear safety shoes and watch their step. But on vacation in rural Indiana, Jones went native, stepped barefoot on a red hot floor register in his woods cabin, gave himself a Hoosier hotfoot that kept him off the nature trails for several days.

Yes, in orbit or on earth, some mighty strange things have been going on. But one thing is for sure. Even when these dizzy doings happen on earth, they can be out of this world.

E. Glenn Hess, of the Hess Duraclean Service, West St., recently returned from attending a factory training school, sponsored by the International Duraclean Headquarters in Chicago.

During the week-long program, Hess learned of the latest developments and research in the field of absorption cleaning of carpeting and upholstery. He participated in sessions attended by 20 dealers from the United States and Canada.

Carpet construction, man-made fibers, auto cleaning, and actual on-location cleaning supervised by Duraclean staff members were popular sessions attended by Hess picturing above receiving his diploma from Irl H. Marshall Jr., president of the international organization.

LAUNDRY WAGE RATE OKAYED

HARRISBURG (AP) — A proposed 75-cent-an-hour minimum wage rate for women and minors employed in the laundry industry was approved Tuesday by laundry owners. But union officials asked for more.

The 75-cent minimum wage was made in a major report by a laundry Minimum Wage Board appointed by the State Labor and Industry Department. The rate would go up a nickel to 80 cents an hour six months after the order becomes effective.

Chantry Davis, secretary of the Pennsylvania Laundry Owners Assn., told a public hearing that his group does not oppose the proposed minimum.

However, he said, it "will be a hardship" on the state's laundry owners.

Michael Johnson, education director of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor, asked that the amount be substantially increased and that a new wage board be called, if necessary, "to consider the entire problem."

John C. Fraim, a Harrisburg laundry owner, testified that he has been paying his laundry workers $1 an hour and making a profit.

Driver Training Expansion Urged

HARRISBURG (AP) — Expansion of the driver training program in Pennsylvania public and private high schools was urged Tuesday by a group of automobile driver training experts.

The 34-member group suggested that summer courses be made available to students and that after-school and Saturday courses be planned.

Ivan J. Stehman, coordinator of highway safety education in the public instruction department, said that although 80 per cent of the Commonwealth's public and private high schools offer driver courses, less than 37 per cent of original paintings and pieces of sculpture on the walls surrounding the meat counter.

"When you're trying to decide between chuck at 79 cents a pound and round steak at 99 cents, it takes the pressure off a bit to look at the pictures," commented one housewife.

BERLIN (AP) — The East German Parliament is abolishing its upper house, the Laenderkammer. An abolition law said recent ordinances providing for closer cooperation between Parliament and state and local authorities "had unified and centralized the mechanism of state organs in East Germany" and had made the upper house redundant.

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Frederick R. Kappel, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., says arrangements had been completed to bypass the 50 critical target areas so the nation's telephone network could still work in case of an enemy attack.

Kappel told a businessmen's luncheon Monday that "under our present arrangement we can dial from New York to San Francisco without going through a single major city."

New Price Index Figure Is Lower

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Labor and Industry Department reports the Pennsylvania Consumer Price Index declined .2 per cent between mid-July and mid-October.

William L. Batt Jr., department secretary, said Tuesday that on Oct. 15 the index stood at 122.7 per cent of the 1947-49 base period. A 1.5 per cent decline in food prices was the principal reason for the decline in the consumer index, he said.

The other major components — housing, apparel and transportation — rose during the period. Housing was up .1 per cent, clothing 2.1 per cent and transportation 1 per cent.

Ground-Breaking Ceremony Frozen

CHICAGO (AP) — Everything was in readiness for the ground-breaking ceremony — the gold-plated shovel, the speeches and the dignitaries.

The site was where a 12-room addition to the Hearst Elementary School would be built.

Suddenly, Bernard A. Quish, the principal, spoke out:

"It just can't be done. Not through six inches of snow, frozen earth and in zero weather."

Someone suggested going indoors.

So there were speeches and dignitaries. But no gold-plated shovel and no ground.

RUDOLF FRIML INJURED
PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP) — Prompt action by composer Rudolf Friml's wife saved his life when a glass table top shattered and cut his leg, a doctor says.

Mrs. Friml applied a tourniquet with a towel and took her 78-year-old husband to a doctor's office Tuesday. Twenty-three stitches were required to close the wound.

The eligible students take the courses.

ARCHERY SHOOT HERE
Another shoot was held by the Pigeon Hill Archers Saturday. This was the second of a series. The next is scheduled for Saturday with registration at 4 and 7 p.m. There will be archery bowling Sunday starting at 2 p.m. Trophies will be awarded in each class. The winners Saturday follow: Class A, Robert Adams; Class B, Mike Becker; Class C, James Gilford; Class D, Edward Gastley; Women, Mary Ann Rider, Class C; Free Style, Class B, Donald Reller.

The shoots scheduled for this weekend will be held at the Adams County Fairgrounds, near Abbottstown.

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — A letter sent registered mail by city hall to "The United States of America, Post Office Building, Tulsa," was returned with a notation, "insufficient address."

I knew when I went in," Pete McKenzie told a newsman Tuesday night. "People talk too much and it's hard to trust anybody."

"Besides, in Huntsville they keep you in a cell. Under the terms of my parole, I could not leave Tennessee to get treatment for my asthma, and my condition got worse."

"I Can Die There"
If the prison doctors can't help his asthma, McKenzie said, "I can die there."

He was convicted of murdering a San Antonio, Tex., detective, Sam Street, in 1923 and sentenced to death. That was later commuted to life and he became a prison trusty.

During the 1930's, McKenzie was credited with saving the life of a guard. Under a conditional pardon given him in September of 1937, he was never to return to Texas and had to live with a brother in Shelby County (Memphis), Tenn.

Coughing constantly and bleeding from the mouth, he told a newsman Tuesday night he was on his way to Austin, Tex., to ask Gov. Price Daniel to return him to prison.

McKenzie called Dallas News police reporter Harry McCormick to tell him his story while between planes in Dallas.

Bitter Cold Wave, Some Snow, Blasts Across U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A prewinter blast of snow and cold gave a midwinter setting to broad areas from the Connecticut Divide to New England Tuesday. Bitter cold knifed into Midwest sections as snow diminished in most areas west of the Mississippi Valley. The snow, however, continued in the Northeast. The worst snowstorm in history hit Oswego, N.Y., with a record fall of 33 inches in a 24-hour period. A state of emergency was declared for the Lake Ontario city.

Lowest temperatures of the season were reported in many parts of the snow belt from the Rockies to deep into the mid-Mississippi Valley and the Missouri Valley.

Below Zero Reading

Below zero temperatures were common throughout Montana and the Dakotas and were reported as far south as central sections of Illinois and Indiana and in southern Iowa.

One of the iciest spots was International Falls, Minn., on the Canadian border. The thermometer dipped to 28 degrees below zero.

BURDA'S HOPES ARE BRIGHTER

CHICAGO (AP)—Things looked a little brighter—literally and figuratively—today for Stanley Burda.

Things were blackest a week ago when he left Cook County Hospital wearing protective blinders over an injured eye to make funeral arrangements for his daughter.

The girl, Beverly Ann, 13, was killed in the fire Dec. 1 at Our Lady of the Angels School.

Was Idle Milkman

Burda, a 37-year-old former milkman, was unemployed. On the morning of his daughter's death, a splinter which penetrated his left eye while he was chopping wood was removed.

The tragedy got Burda a job, temporarily, checking up on the needs of other families whose children were killed or injured in the fire. He was hired for this work by Jim Moran, an auto dealer, who announced he would give $10,000 to needy families of fire victims.

Burda was told by doctors Monday he could take off his blinders. His injured eye is virtually normal again.

Waves Purse At Dog And Gets Bite On Leg

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A 76-year-old woman was talking to a neighbor Monday and playfully waved her purse at the neighbors five boxer dogs. The dogs jumped at her.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sellers was bitten on both legs. She was reported in fair condition at a hospital. She had been talking to Mrs. Lillian Patrick of nearby Elverson R. 1. Mrs. Patrick breeds dogs.

HUSH TALK ON INTEGRATION

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The Houston School Board heard the first specific proposal for integrating what is believed to be the largest segregated school system in the nation.

The proposal by the school attorney, Joe Reynolds, came in a surprise closed session at the end of a regular board meeting Monday night.

The board took no action on the plan, and agreed to keep secret its details.

Reynolds, who requested the closed session, said he and Supt. John W. McFarland had been studying the question since last summer.

Want It Peaceful

"We would like to see that when desegregation does come, it is done peacefully, quietly and without violence," Reynolds said.

Houston voters last month elected the board's first Negro member, Mrs. Charles E. White, by a substantial majority. She will not take office until the first of the year.

"We're certainly not going to take any action on this before Mrs. White comes on the board," said Mrs. Frank Dyer, board president.

None of the other board members would comment.

The Houston public school district includes 167 schools and 159,180 students.

Sixty Students Plan 1,200 Mile Marathon

MARSHALL, Mo. (AP) — The Viking spirit is flaming so high at Missouri Valley College that 60 students plan a 1,200-mile marathon run with a lighted torch to the Tangerine Bowl football game at Orlando, Fla.

Missouri Valley will play East Texas State in the game Dec. 27. Putting it mildly, the students are proud of the Valley Vikings' 11-game victory string running back into 1957.

The torch will burn around the clock and should cross seven states in about seven days, they figure.

SOVIETS FIRE THEIR NO. 1 POLICEMAN

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union's top policeman, Gen. Ivan A. Serov, has been relieved of his job. The announcement in the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia Tuesday said he had been transferred to other duties but gave no hint of what they were.

Serov's successor as chairman of the Committee for State Security also was not announced.

Most foreign observers in Moscow believed Serov may perhaps have been given an even more important job. He has long been a friend and close associate of Nikita S. Khrushchev, who heads both the government and the Communist party.

Believed Demoted

(Some Western experts on Soviet affairs believed Serov had been demoted because the Izvestia announcement did not give his new post, the customary procedure when a Kremlin official is promoted.)

Serov, a 53-year-old army general, had become well known abroad in recent years for being in charge of security arrangements on Premier Khrushchev's trips. He was widely known earlier for directing the plan to liquidate anti-Communist elements in the Baltic countries in 1940.

Serov was last seen by Western correspondents at a Kremlin reception Nov. 10 for Wladyslaw Gomułka, head of the Polish Communist party. A slight, ruddy-faced man with penetrating blue eyes, he was usually friendly and informal in public, chatting freely with foreign diplomats and newsmen at receptions.

Worked With Khrushchev

After having been closely identified with Soviet security organs almost from the beginning of his career, Serov got some of the powers of Lavrenty Beria after Stalin's police chief had been executed in 1953. He formally took command of the committee which is the supreme Soviet police organ in April 1954.

Serov was one of the numerous officials now in top Soviet ranks who worked with Khrushchev when the present Premier was Communist party boss in the Ukraine during World War II. Serov was head of state security in that southwestern Soviet republic.

Four orders of Lenin rank Serov with the other top decorated officials.

Serov served as chief bodyguard for Khrushchev and then Premier Nikolai Bulganin on their trips. He preceded them to Britain to make security arrangements for their 1956 visit.

British newspapers greeted Serov in 1956 with such names as "butcher," "murderer," "odious thug" and "jackal." The attacks were based primarily on Serov's role in purging anti-Communists from areas newly acquired by the Soviet Union during World War II.

Serov reportedly was sent to Budapest in 1956 to show Hungarian Communists how to suppress the uprising against Soviet rule. Serov became an important element in Khrushchev's power structure. One source has said Serov helped rally Khrushchev's forces in June 1957 to defeat the revolt against the party boss by former Premier Georgi Malenkov, former Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, Bulganin and others.

NAB SUSPECT IN ROBBERY

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The third man in connection with the robbery of an elderly Virginia storekeeper was arrested by FBI agents in Harrisburg, Pa., Monday.

He was identified as Claude Dennis Mitchell, 24, of Luray, Va. John A. Roche, agent in charge of the Richmond FBI office, said that since the Oct. 15 robbery of about $20,000 from E.D. Lloyd, 76, of Shenandoah, Va., Mitchell had been in Clarksburg, W. Va., Pittsburgh, New York City, Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles, and Hawaii. He had $118 in his possession when arrested, Roche said.

After a hearing before a U.S. commissioner Mitchell was taken to the Dauphin County prison in lieu of $10,000 bond. Roche said he was to be transferred to the Cumberland County jail in Carlisle, Pa.

Mitchell has indicated he will not fight extradition, Roche said.

Patrick H. Jackson, 30, of near Elkton, Va., and Page Fairfax Frye were arrested earlier in connection with the robbery. All three are Negroes.

OH, MY ACHING BACK

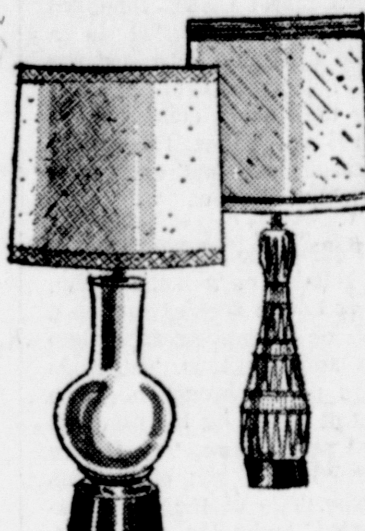

Now! You can get the fast relief you need from nagging backache, headache and muscular aches and pains that often cause restless nights and miserable tired-out feelings. When these discomforts come on with over-exertion or stress and strain — you want relief — want it fast! Another disturbance may be mild bladder irritation following wrong food and drink — often setting up a restless uncomfortable feeling. Doan's Pills work fast in 3 separate ways: 1. by speedy pain-relieving action to ease torment of nagging backache, headache, muscular aches and pains, 2. by soothing effect on bladder irritation, 3. by mild diuretic action tending to increase output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Enjoy a good night's sleep and the same happy relief millions have for over 60 years. New, large size saves money. Get Doan's Pills today!

Testifies

Carl L. Burrows of Wichita, Kan., tells the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington that his firm made payments totaling $27,000 to Vice President Arthur Cronin of the Sheet Metal Workers Union to solve some labor problems. Burrows, an official of the Coleman Co., said $5,000 of the money later was returned.

INCREASE IN

ways are closed and detours established.

H. A. "Cappy" Thomson, secretary of the state supervisors association, outlined the need for such a resolution. State law requires the state highway department, when it uses a township road as a detour, to restore the road after the detour period is ended. To avoid that expense the state highway department has "run detours miles out of the way in order to keep the entire detour on state roads. It's a good idea, but the motorists soon find the shorter way and make their own unofficial detour over township roads. With that kind of traffic they can knock a road apart in ten days and the township can get no relief from the state because its roads, while used by the people as a detour, were not part of the official detour set up by the state."

Annexation Law

The supervisors voted again to seek the annexation law change which passed the last legislature, but was vetoed by the governor. The law would provide for a vote by the people in a township when it is suggested that part of a township be annexed to a borough.

Another resolution seeks compensation for use of township equipment to open state roads both during last year's heavy snows and in the future. The supervisors pointed out that in many cases it was necessary for the "township to spend considerable time and money in opening state highways of snow even to get to their own roads."

The supervisors condemned "continuing encroachments of the State Department of Health into the field of local government."

Other resolutions adopted ask that the state constitution be amended to increase the borrowing capacity of townships from 7 per cent to 15 per cent of assessed valuation; that the state allocation for bridge building be based on need rather than on mileage and population; that discrimination against second class townships in the matter of taxing be ended; continuation of the state's formula for providing financial aid on the basis of 70 per cent mileage, 30 per cent "that will take away from local governments their share of motor code fines; increase in the pay of supervisors at conventions and township meetings to $10 per day or meeting, and thanked the Adams county commissioners for the manner in which the county distributes its county aid funds.

Milton W. Delaney, editor of the Township News, urged attendance of delegates at the state convention to be held in Pittsburgh February 1 to 4. Robert W. Barton and Carroll O. Miller, district township engineers, and Roger W. Stoy, township administrator, spoke on problems of road building.

Close Forty Hours Services Tuesday

The solemn closing of Forty Hours' Devotions took place Tuesday evening at St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Bonneauville, the Rev. Fr. Leo J. Krichen, pastor. The Forty Hours had opened Sunday morning.

The Rev. Fr. Justinian Manning, Passionist father from St. Joseph's Monastery in Baltimore, gave the Forty Hours. At the closing service Tuesday evening the Rosary and sermon were given by Fr. Manning. Visiting priests sang the Litany led by the Rev. Fr. Alexius Arnold of Gettysburg.

The procession was led by members of the Holy Name Society and included school children, altar boys and visiting priests. The Rev. Fr. William A. Boyle of Littlestown, was celebrant for the solemn benediction. Fr. John Bolen of Conewago, was deacon; Fr. Carol Brady, St. Rose Church of York, sub-deacon, and the Rev. Fr. Francis Lahout, St. Mary's, McSherrystown, was master of ceremonies.

ROTH OUTLINES

Arabic. We hope to put that display in as many stores in the state as possible. Another way you can help Travel Council is if you know a store owner anywhere in the state where it would be worthwhile to put a display so a lot of people may see it and get the Gettysburg idea tell us about it. A tape-recorded Lincoln program is also planned for radio stations.

800,000 Annual Visitors

Roth added that 20 or 30 persons a day are writing to Gettysburg for information. Some are satisfied with a routine answer, others need information that requires time to dig up.

"You may ask, 'What is tourist trade anyway?' I can almost hear someone saying, 'Tourists do not bring any income to me.' Agreed. Perhaps tourists may not walk directly into each store and spend $1 there, but if they spend it with anyone in Gettysburg eventually it gets around to all the others. We have about 400 people directly earning a living off tourists trades. We have about five million dollars brought into the town by 800,000 people visiting here each year.

"Gettysburg is in competition with every other tourist town. The seashore would like to have the tourist, so would every other tourist center. If we don't push the Gettysburg story, people will soon forget there is such a town. Our voice must be in there shouting as loud as the rest to remind all."

Lane Shows Slides

We hope by working through all the other organizations here they will all join us and sell the Gettysburg story to all they meet."

Slides that eventually will be made into film strips for other clubs to show and take to clubs in neighboring cities were shown by Walter B. Lane, president of the council, with Roth narrating a brief Gettysburg story. Roth said, "This is one way the organizations in town can help promote the 100th anniversary of the Civil War and Gettysburg at the same time."

Vice President Phil Neth, chairman of the program committee, introduced the speaker and Lane. Donald Joseph, president, presided.

EXPECT CHEST

wide Community Chest or some method of coordinating county-wide drives at the same time the local Community Chest campaign is held. As it now stands, directors of Community Chest noted, "The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Library, Red Cross, YWCA, all make more or less extensive drives throughout the county in addition to the support they receive from Community Chest. This leads to much duplication of effort. If all drives could be held simultaneously, or a county-wide Community Chest set up, then the whole thing could be carried out at one time with major publicity at that time."

Dunn is '59 Chairman

Gordon Webster, Chest president, and Lentz held that if the fact finding committee determines that there is a good possibility that a county-wide Community Chest can be successful, "it probably could be brought into existence in about two years."

Dr. Seymour Dunn, dean at Gettysburg College, was named finance chairman for the 1959 campaign.

Named as a nominating committee were Attorney John A. MacPhail, Radford H. Lippy, Richard Bruce, Stanley Rogers, Mrs. M. Hardy Nichols, Attorney Daniel E. Teeter and Carl A. Baum. The committee will report at the annual meeting in February with nominations for seven directors, president, vice president and secretary-treasurer.

Named as the auditing committee were Harold Ecker, Kenneth G. Reinhart Jr. and Russell Schwartz.

Announce Program At Flohr's Church

The Christmas schedule for Flohr's Lutheran Church, McKittricktown, is as follows: December 14—The Children's Choir will present a group of Christmas carols and anthems at 9 a.m. along with the Youth Choir which will sing three anthems. Also that day at 7:30 p.m. the combined choirs of the Church of the Brethren, along the Biglerville Road, and Flohr's Church will present a Christmas cantata, "The Saviour Is Born," by Philip Gray, under the direction of Walter Keeney Jr. and Mrs. D. F. Slegal. The Rev. C. Reynolds Simmons, minister of the Church of the Brethren, will officiate at the service and give a short meditation according to the cantata theme.

December 24—A candlelight service to be held at 11 p.m. will include special vocal, piano, and organ music.

SEEK CLOTHING

About 30 members of the Golden Star Y-Teens, composed of members of the Junior Class at Gettysburg High School, will solicit local stores and business establishments starting this afternoon at 4 o'clock, for clothing for a family the group is supporting. Following the solicitation the group will return to the YWCA to hold a Christmas party.
